

Pleasing the Ladies

Women are the most exacting purchasers. We court careful buying, and are proud of our reputation that this is a safe place to buy. We have a fashion of pleasing the ladies. An important difference between a good and a poor restaurant is in the service—the same in buying shoes. Our determination is to let no customer go away unsatisfied. What you want is here, and it is our pleasure to show every style until you are exactly suited. There are no birds in last years' nests. Our stock is fresh, new and up-to-date. Our prices are reasonable, and we want your custom.

LAUGHING GAS.

Real Loneliness.
Alone! It seems but yesterday,
With childish pranks and laughter,
The joyous youngsters here held sway
From basement up to rafters.
Their mother's chiding words I hear
Because of boisterous singing.
The merry shout, the swelling cheer,
Still in my ears are ringing.
Sad memories are everywhere,
To make my lot more trying,
Here stands the baby's little chair,
And there a doll is lying.
The drum that Freddy used to beat
Is in his room neglected.
The shabby shoes that held his feet
But make me more dejected.
The loneliness of desert drear
Could not be more depressing,
Nor island solitude appear
So woefully distressing.
The home, the rooms, once dear to me,
Increase my desolation,
For nowhere else would all I see
Have such association.
Ah, me! Of all I really prize
Harsh fate has thus bereft me,
And now to greet my weary eyes
I find these trifles left me.
And here, where I've known happiness—
'Twas jolly here last Sunday—
I must live on in such distress
Till they get home next Monday.

Either Way Goes.
"Should I say 'He is believed to be dead again' or 'He is again believed to be dead'?" asked Mr. Dinwiddie of Mr. Van Braum.
"The latter expression is correct, of course. If man is dead, he is dead. The idea is that a previous report that he was dead, which proved to be false, has been followed by another report, which is believed to be true."
"But I was speaking of the emperor of China."
"Oh, that's different. It doesn't matter how you put it."

A Kansas Man's Experience.

This story is told by an Atchison man who made a trip in the west. One night after going to bed, he was disturbed by a lot of noisy men in a saloon across the street from the hotel. The drunken men became noisier toward midnight, and the Atchison man, being unable to sleep, got out of bed and resolved to "do something." He resolved to call the clerk and have the drunken men arrested and sent to the police station in the patrol wagon. So he went down stairs to complain and found the clerk trembling. "Sh!" the clerk said, "there is only one officer in town, and he is drunk with the party. Quick! Shot Harned and Bruiser Bill and seven other of the worst men in the territory are in the party. You will be fortunate if they do not attack the hotel and make the guests dance in their night clothes." The Atchison man crept back to bed meekly and shivered and shook until the drunken men had disappeared with a lot of whoops and pistol shots.

Hypnotizing the Will.

Charles Godfrey Leland in his book gives a hint that brain workers generally may profit by. Taking the familiar fact that if one lies down to sleep determined to get up, say, at 6 o'clock, he will probably awake at that hour, Mr. Leland has carried the idea further and made a practical application of it in will suggestion. In other words, Mr. Leland affirms, backed by his own experience, that if one on lying down to sleep at night will resolutely fix in his mind what he will do the next day he will be greatly aided in the doing of it. The will is hypnotized, so to speak, and proceeds to act upon the suggestion. Mr. Leland even asserts a man can cure himself of the habit of profanity, of intemperance and can to a remarkable degree even control fatigue, hunger and thirst. If all that Mr. Leland claims for his method be true, he has lighted upon a wonderful aid in directing the will and energies of man.—Argonaut.

Additional Locals.

Miss Phelps has recovered from her recent illness, and is again in her place at the Collegiate Institute.

Miss Jennie Teeple has been visiting friends in Ridgetown for the past week or so.

The harvest home services of Trinity church were held on Sunday last, the Rev. Mr. Owen, of London, officiating. There were large congregations and good collections at each service.

The Rev. J. Veale, who has been spending the past month in different parts of Manitoba, will be home this week and take his regular church work at Springfield and Trinity next Sunday.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Geo. W. House will succeed Mr. J. C. Taylor as local agent for the Frost & Wood implement company and will remove at once from Tilsonburg. George will make another good citizen for us, and a good agent for the company.

Mr. John H. Carter, of Richmond, who is well known throughout this section, died at his home near Richmond yesterday, Oct. 3rd, in his 74th year. He was unmarried, but leaves two sisters who reside at home with him. Mr. Carter was well and favorably known and leaves many friends. The funeral takes place on Friday at one o'clock. Services at the house and interment in Burdick's cemetery.

Faulty Kidneys.—Have you backache? Do you feel drowsy? Do your limbs feel heavy? Have you frequent headaches? Have you falling vision? Have you dizzy feeling? Are you depressed? Is your skin dry? Have you a tired feeling? Any of these signs prove kidney disease. Experience has proved that South American Kidney Cure never fails.—6 Sold by J. E. Richards.

The Land of the Bean.
Singularly the ordinary bean, which only the Bostonians know how to cook properly, may be cultivated with certainty of profit in only a small part of the country. For many years Monroe, Orleans and Niagara counties, in New York state produced many more beans than any other similar area in the world. Their bean crop was the only one of importance on earth. Brockport, in Monroe county, was the world's bean metropolis, and farmers near there made small fortunes out of beans.

Just as Good.

He—I say, miss, is there a drugstore open anywhere near here?
Barmaid (at railway restaurant)—No; they're all shut.
He—No place where I could buy a rubber ring or something like that, suitable for a lady carrying its teeth?
Barmaid—No.

He (in a tone of resignation)—Well, then, wrap me up one of your ham sandwiches.

Pill Senses.—It stands to reason that Dr. Agnew's Little Liver Pills will crowd out of the market many of the nauseous old-timers. A better medicine at less than half the price is all the argument needed to keep the demand what it has been—phenomenal—40 doses to cents. They cure Sick Headache, Biliousness, and allay all stomach irritations.—5 Sold by J. E. Richards.

Eat what you like.—Give the digestive organs some work to do. These functions need exercise as much as any part of the human anatomy, but if they're delicate, give them the aid that Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets afford and you can eat anything that's wholesome and palatable.—6 Sold by J. ### An Excellent Opportunity

The "Investors Fund" offers an excellent opportunity to invest capital where it will bring a regular monthly income. And the Surplus Profits if allowed to accumulate and compound will largely increase the original investment and also the income derived from it.
In past success and the conservative manner in which it is conducted have raised it to a gratifying position of prominence and popularity, and it numbers among its investors many of the shrewdest and ablest business and professional men in the Dominion. The popularity of the "Investors Fund" is not confined to any class of investors as its plans of investment place its advantages within the reach of all.
Its past record is convincing. Last year we earned and paid investors in addition to the regular monthly dividend of 4 per cent. Surplus Profits averaging 6.18 per cent. per month. NOT A DOLLAR has been lost to any investor through the "Fund" and we have not one dissatisfied subscriber.
The "Investors Fund" is NOT AN EXPERIMENT. It is conducted on sound business principles and only the most reliable of the standard Railway and Industrial Securities are dealt in. The outlook for the "Fund" was never more promising than at the present time. We expect the next six months to be exceptionally active ones in financial circles and we look forward confidently to this period of increased activity which will assure larger earnings for the "Fund."
Briefly outlined its method of operation is as follows: The Investors are paid a regular monthly dividend of 4 per cent. out of the Gross Earnings. A large percentage of the Surplus Profits are credited to investors, and distributed or re-invested every three months as desired, and a portion of the earnings is set aside for a Reserve Fund. This Reserve Fund is the Investors' safeguard as it reduces the risk on all our operations to a minimum.
THE PLANS OF INVESTMENT are arranged so that all may take advantage of them. Under the regular plan any amount from $50 upwards is received for investment and certificate issued with monthly coupons attached. (These Coupons are endorsed by the holder each month as they fall due and forwarded to our office where they receive prompt attention.) We have also adopted a special monthly payment plan.
