THE TORONTO CLUB SOLD. The Toronto baseball club met the representatives of the Toronto Ferry Company, and completed the transfer of the club. Arthur Irwin, F. G. Soole and Charles A. Campbell met the company and completed all arrangements. Arthur Irwin will retain a two-fifths interest in the club, while the rest goes to the company, in the names of Messrs. Smith, Osler and Galt. A share is to be given L. Solomon, of Hanlan's Point. Messrs. Campbell and Soole will retire from the club entirely. Arthur Irwin was chosen president of the club, and Wm. Galt, secretary-treasurer.Edward Barrows, of Philadelphia, will, in all probability, be appointed mangiven out.

TORONTO WON AND LOST. Toronto, Sept. 2.—Hartford and Toronto played a double-header this afternoon. The first was a ten-inning game, in which the visitors won by single in the tenth. The second game was called at the end of the eighth on account of darkness. Alloway went in to pitch for Toronto, but he had his bad finger smash ed in trying to field a ball in the third and had to retire, Williams taking his place. The home team won rather easilv. Mr. James McBurney, farmer and veterinary surgeon, of Embro, Oxford county, states:

Urquhart's three-bagger and Hodson's

"I was troubled with itching piles, and after riding they would get very sore, and bleed, so much so that I was in terrible pain. For nine years I endured this torture, and can safey say that I have tried every remedy one could mention.

'Hearing of Dr. Chase's Ointment and knowing of the exceptional merit of the doctor's recipe book, I decided to try the ointment. To my surprise I was cured by one box, and have never been troubled since, though that was two years ago. I am strong and jous well, and always recommend Dr. Chase's died. FIGHTS AT TORONTO. Toronto, Sept. 2.-Mike Donovan, of Rochester, and Charlie Johnson, of Philadelphia, fought a 20-round draw at 140 pounds before the Crescent Club at the Mutual street rink tonight. Both men were fighting hard when the beil rang, although Johnson was floored ten seconds after the final bell. His gameness saved him from a worse decision. The fight was without much incident until the eleventh round, and the crowd was disposed to ridicule the fighters. 6, 88. Up till then it was anybody's fight. Ladies' Niagara handicap—First, In the eleventh Donovan fought like Miss Dixon, 59, 4, 55; second, Miss Bed-Philadelphian taking the limit. In the twelfth round Donovan floored Johnson three times, and Referee John Tinning, of Toronto, ordered the men to their corners. Johnson persisted in fighting, though, and the gong saved him from a knockout. He came back weak in the thirteneth, and Donovan was so eager to finish his man that he wasted a lot of blows and fell all over the ring. From that time on, Johnson got stronger, and the fight became a very even thing. There was a delay of three minutes in the middle of the seventeenth round, owing to the sudden extinguishing of the electric lights. The fight was finished by gaslight. It was an unsatisfactory fight and injured the club.

In the first preliminary, Jimmy Hewitt, of Toronto, easily outpointed Tony Moore, another local 105-pound amateur, in a five-round contest, and was given the decision.

The semi-wind-up was to have been a ten-round bout between Jimmy Smith, of Toronto, and "Kid" Herrick, of Rochester, at 117 pounds. Herrick weighed in at 1261/2. Smith took the forfeit money and conceded the extra 91/2 pounds. Smith went right at the Rochester man in the first round, and made him very cheap. In the second round Herrick repeatedly fouled to save punishment. Warnings had no effect upon him, and he appeared glad when the referee stopped the fight and awarded the decision to Smith.

The Rossin House, Toronto.

To globe-trotters, the name "The Rossin," the finest hotel in Ontario, has long stood a synonym of cosiness, home-like comfort and up-to-date luxury, attributes which are much advertised, and in reality possessed little, by other pretentious houses. While being the most centrally located of the Toronto hotels, it is happily remote from all the noise, smoke and dust of the railways, yet only two blocks from the Union Station, up York street, at its intersection with King street, Toronto's historic and most fashionable promen-

In capacity "The Rossin" can comfortably accommodate 400 guests, 50 of its rooms having bathrooms attached. As a protection against fire it is built with brick partitions throughout. There are five stairways from the upper to the first floor, and, nightly, watchmen patrol the corridors, insuring the per-fect safety of guests. An additional feature of the house is the absence of winding passages-all the hallways being attractively wide and lofty. In every respect the architect, with an eye to safety, health and comfort, wrought on a generous scale. In fine, the house is like its management, like its cuisine, like its patronage, the best and most modern in the city.

This hotel home, it will be known with no surprise, has numbered among its guests at various times, members of the royal family, of the nobility and Proprietors.
