GOLD BAR STILL MISSING

Men Engaged in Transfer of the Bullion Arrested.

The Detectives at Late Hour Had Discovered No Clue.

Detroit, Mich., March 20. - There were four bars of gold in the shipment. The incoming messenger is positive he unloaded all four and wheeled the truck into the company's office. When the midnight train on which eastbound express matter goes was ready but three bars were found on the truck. The hope that possibly the messenger might have overlooked one and left it in the car which went on to Buffalo was entertained until a dispatch came from that city saying there was no gold in car. men, who were in the office while the gold was awaiting transfer to the midnight train, were taken into custody and examined, but were released. Chief of Detectives McDonnell said this afternoon that his men had dis-New London, Conn., March 20. - In covered no clue to the missing gold. coming messenger in the customary pany's office in the Union depot.
