CHICAGO.

Chicago, May 6.—Wheat—The market held fairly steady, with alight trade, until the close, when prices broke ½c from lack of support. Wheat seemed to be for sale on all the hard spots. Damage reports from the winter wheat districts were much less plentiful than usual. The weather bulletin claims no material injury to wheat from frost, but suggested some slight deterioration in the Mississippi and Ohio valleys. The Pacific coast is still in need of rain. It is said that a couple of cargoes of No. 2 red were offered here from Toledo at a price which would show a profit to the buyer. With the exception of Liverpool, foreign markets were generally lower, and the wea-CHICAGO. kets were generally lower, and the wea-ther continues favorable. Estimated re-ceipts tomorrow, 35 cars. The market held here this forenoon was a dull and uninteresting one. The amount of produce offered was not large, and sales were only fairly brisk.

Grain—About 10 or 12 loads of oats were offered, which brought 88c to 90c per cental. A couple of loads of wheat sold at $1.20 per cental.

Hay and Straw—Only 9 loads of hay offered; the demand was good, at $8 to $950 per ton; there should be a good demand for choice loads of hay on Friday, as several buyers could not secure a sufficient supply to fill their orders today. Butter and Eggs—The supply of butter offered was small, and prices are easy at 16c to 17c for pound rolls and 15c to 16c for crocks. There is a brisk demand for crocks. There is a brisk demand for eggs; this is partly due to the demand in the eastern markets, and the fact that the factories have commenced pickling them in large quantities; prices ruled at 11½c per dozen and occasionally 12c was secured for basket lots.

Vegetables and Roots—There was quite a lot of potatoes offered and sales were quite brisk at $1 15 to $1 20 per bag; seed bulges.
Corn-The market was firm on light

Apples were not so plentiful; sales were, however, slow at prices quoted.

Dressed Hogs—About 100 carcases offered; prices were lower, at $25 per 100 pounds for the bulk of them.

The supply of poultry was quite large; turkeys are not a brisk sale, at 11c to 12c per pound for gobblers and 14c for hens; dressed chickens sold at 80c to $1 10 per pounds. row, 125 cars.
Provisions—The market opened lower on weak news, but was given kick recovery on buying by leading packers of lard, said to be against cash sales made on the break. Later, foreign shorts covered on stop-loss orders, and the market closed with fair gains for the day. Trade was with fair gains for the day. Trade was large all day in lard and good in ribs, but pork was very dull, not many sales being made during the session. The local crowd are bullish and quite aggressive when it is evident they have support back of them. Estimated receipts of hogs tomorrow 24 000
