Letters to the Editor.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN EAST MIDDLESEX.

To the Editor of The Advertiser: My attention has been drawn to the article in your issue of the 12th inst., in which Messrs. Banks and Neely were spoken of as possible candidates for the Conservative convention to take place soon; also to the letter of "Electors" in the issue of the 14th inst., evidently inspired by one of the candidates, in which he refutes the idea of the existence of two factions in this township. To prove his fallacy, he refers with considerable pride to the successful efforts of Messrs.
Neely, Wade Webster and Dakin to elect Mr. Banks as Conservative last year.
"Electors" will not succeed, however, in misleading anyone or turning attention from the true condition of affairs of the party in this township. If there has been a wide breach existing between two factions of the party for the past year and Mr. Neely cannot say there has not—there is no one more responsible for it than Mr. Neely himself. At the last municipal election, when two Conservatives were contested, the result, he refuses to admit, was not a narrow one, but a large portion of the best party workers in the township.
And now Mr. Neely is aspiring to higher honors himself, and will expect the support of those who have treated so troublesomely last year. He may succeed in polling a good vote in other townships, where he is not known so well, but he will come far below the party vote in this township. He will have to make a satisfactory explanation of his actions before he will command the confidence of the people in this district.
INDEPENDENT CONSERVATIVE.

The regular bi-weekly meeting of the Review Club was held on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. C. E. Cowley on Princess avenue. There was a large attendance of members. Two very interesting papers were read by Mr. Perrin B. A., and Miss Buttery on Emerson's essay on compensation and the value of money. The papers were largely applauded by the members.
The residents of Coldstream have been holding regular entertainments in aid of their public library, and the result is that they have funds to purchase the newest publications and books to keep up the standard of the give an entertainment in the town hall to aid the library fund. Mrs.

Agnes Knox Black is the special entertainer for the evening, but other talent will provide the residents with a first-class programme.

DEATH AT CENTRALIA.
On Saturday evening death claimed an estimable Centralia young lady, Miss Margaret Irwin McCoy, eldest daughter of Mr. Samuel McCoy. Pneumonia was the cause of death. Miss McCoy is survived by her parents, her brother, Samuel, and sister, Rebecca.
Interment takes place in the Exeter Cemetery tomorrow. Services at the family residence, 1181 Centralia, 1 p.m.

DEATH OF MRS. LISTER.
The death occurred in Victoria Hospital on Saturday of Mrs. Lister, wife of Mr. Robert H. Lister, G. T. R. engineer, of 239 Colborne street. She deceased, who was in her 20th year, had been ill for several months, and her death was not unexpected. Beside her husband, she is survived by two children, Harry W. Lister, who was for some time employed in Cairncross & Lawrence's drug store, but is now a student in a College of Pharmacy, Toronto, and Miss Edna, at home. The funeral took place this afternoon from the family residence to Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.
Chief Clerk of the department, has determined to institute a thorough inquiry into the sending in of a false alarm from a box at the corner of Chalmers street and the railway, about 11 o'clock Saturday night. The firemen responded quickly, only to find that they had been hoaxed. A man who rode a bicycle was seen to enter the corner a minute or so before the firemen arrived, and suspicion is now directed towards him. It is supposed that the man who rode the bicycle was sentenced to a year in jail for sending in a false alarm, but the person who rode the bicycle was not lost on some people in London.

THE ELKS' CONCERT.

One of the events of the season will be the concert to be given by the Elks in the Auditorium for the benefit of the Elks' fund. The concert will be given on the 23rd inst. at 8 o'clock.
The demonstration of Elk initiation methods on the platform will be full of fun and interest. All who have not been initiated are invited to attend.
The seating capacity of the Auditorium is limited, and already a great many seats have been subscribed for. Mr.
Frank Lawson is the chairman of the committee, and Mr. Jared Vining the secretary.

A UNIQUE SPECTACLE.

An interesting incident is related in connection with the election of Mr.
W. S. Calvert, M. P., Liberal Whip, in West Middlesex. One of the most enthusiastic Liberals in the riding is Mr. Smith, of Woodstock, a Cashmere postoffice, Township of Mosca. Mr.
Woodstock is 84 years of age, yet he did his share in the cause of going to London to vote for Mr. Calvert. The day he was seen driving to the polls, accompanied by Mr. Robert Tunks, senior, and Mr. Abraham Meyer, of Cashmere.
Mr. Woodstock is a unique specimen of a three oldest voters in the west riding.

PICKELL A LONDON MAN.

It appears that Special Officer Pickell of Detroit, who was shot last week and dangerously wounded by burglars, is a London man, being a son of John Pickell, who formerly resided in this city, but is now living at Theod-dore, speaking of the shooting the Detroit Evening News says: "Jordan Pickell, the father of Special Officer Pickell, arrived in the city yesterday and is spending most of his time with his son at Harper Hospital. The parent formerly held the position as special officer until a year ago, when he was succeeded by his son, who is 21 years old. The injured officer's parents live in London, Ont.; his sister in Brantford, Ont. Pickell's condition is much improved this morning."

IN AID OF NURSES' HOME.

There are sure to be large audiences at the London Vaudeville Theatre at the Tuesday and Thursday matinees and Thursday and Friday evening performances, when the proceeds of each performance will be donated to the London Vaudeville Theatre in aid of the furnishing of the new nurses' home in connection with Victoria Hospital.
For some days the managers of the hospital trust and the ladies of the advisory board have had the matter before them, perfecting arrangements, and the result is that the popular theatre will be sure to be crowded with large and fashionable audiences on all four occasions. There is one thing that local theatregoers can be assured of, too, and that is that at the London Vaudeville nothing is permitted which might give offense to any body. On this point the management tolerates no compromise with any performers.
The bill this week is an especially good one, and should prove of especial interest to ladies and children.

FUNERAL OF MRS. JEPSON.

Saturday afternoon the funeral of the late Mrs. Samuel M. Jepson took place from the residence of her parents, 351 Adelaide street, to Woodland Cemetery. Rev. W. H. Clavis, pastor of the Southern Congregational Church, officiating at the house and the cemetery.
The pallbearers were Messrs. Charles Cannon, Alf. Anundson, John Brooks, George Anundson, Ed. Cooke and Samuel Hunt. Among those present were Messrs. J. E. Fewings, and Duluth, and E. B. Fewings, of Toronto, brothers of deceased.

The East Riding Liberals Were Out in Full Force

Enthusiastic Meeting Held in This City On Saturday.

Officers Elected and Delegates to Convention Appointed.

Election Cries of the Opposition Denounced by Several of the Speakers.

The meeting called by the East Middlesex Liberal Association for Saturday afternoon for the purpose of electing officers for the year and appointing delegates to the Toronto convention, proved to be a regular demonstration on the part of the workers of the riding. Such an assembly has rarely, if ever, been seen before at a gathering of East Middlesex Reformers. There was not a division in the entire constituency and Ezra Hunt, for Westminster; John Porter, J. K. Little, John Gilson, Sam Wheaton and James Homister, for London Townships.

Mr. John L. McDougall

Re-Elected President of the East Middlesex Liberal Association.

that was not well represented, and everything indicated that the party was united and again prepared to score a victory, no matter what the provincial contest is to take place.
Duffield Hall was crowded, stirring addresses were made, and remarkable enthusiasm was manifested. The dominant note sounded was one that was only a year or so ago, and that was the cry of "No more Tories!" In the coming campaign, it was this; Mr. Whitney and his followers reached their zenith in the last election, and the people of the riding, both the Conservatives and the Liberals, are tired of taking them and their cries as something; but now a great reaction has set in, and the Liberals are going to lead the people of the Province in a decisive condemnation of the Tories, the shameless attempts to connect the Government with isolated acts of corruption which have taken place in some ridings, and which are a very slight shadow of past Conservative sins, and finally, the work of the Conservative process in producing false cries during the campaign.

President J. L. McDougall was in the chair, and the following were in the audience: Mr. W. H. Taylor, M. P.; Mr. W. H. Taylor, M. P.; Mr. T. H.
Purdum, C. C.; Mr. John Gilson, and others were on the platform.

The Officers Chosen.

In the election of officers for the ensuing year, the following were returned by acclamation: President—J. L. McDougall, London.
Vice-President—Ed. Douglas.
Secretary—Jared Vining, London.
Treasurer—W. W. Gammage, London.

Chairmen of committees were elected as follows: William Kennedy, William Smith and John Anderson, for London Township; James Henderson and Elliott Dunn, for West Nisour; Daniel McIntyre and N. A. McCabell, for St. George's; Ezra Hunt, for David Lawson and Peter Anderson, for Westminster.

The question of calling a convention, view of the approaching provincial election was then considered, and it was moved and carried that the matter should be left to the executive committee, which will decide upon the date, the delegates, and all other details.
There seemed to be no doubt that Dr.
Routledge, the popular member, would again be the candidate.

Delegates to the Convention.

The members from the various townships then appointed their delegates to the coming Liberal convention.
Mr. John McDougall said he thought the former held the position as special officer until a year ago, when he was
succeeded by his son, who is 21 years
old. The injured officer's parents live in London, Ont.; his sister in Brant-
improved this morning."

FIRST OF THE SATURDAY "POPS"

Opening of a Series of Saturday Night Entertainments at the Auditorium.

"Pop" is an abbreviation for popular.
It is also the name given by the Y. M. C. A. to a series of concerts to be given in the Auditorium during the winter season at the remarkably low admission of 10 cents each. Because the price is low does not mean that the concerts are to be inferior, as good talent is to be secured for each one.

On Saturday night the opening "Pop" entertainment was given, and it saw the Auditorium completely filled, and over one hundred turned away. Mr.
Harold Jarvis, the popular baritone, of Detroit, had been engaged, and with a number of London's best entertainers, a company of artists capable of tendering a splendid concert was had.

The programme was opened by a number by Mr. Arthur Garthwaite, the title of which was "Last Night." Mr.
Garthwaite is one of London's best baritone, and his voice has shown remarkable improvement of late. The song was particularly well suited to his voice, and as an opening to such a meritorious programme it was fitting.

Miss Mabel Scarlett followed with a winsome little song, entitled, "I Love You." Miss Scarlett is possessed of an exceedingly rich and full mezzo-soprano voice, and greatly pleased her audience.

A cornet solo was contributed by Mr.
H. E. St. George. It was entitled the "Holy City," ever a favorite with the public.

The fourth number was "Can I Forget," given by Mr. Jarvis. Such an impression did this number make that the singer was heartily cheered, and he responded with "Boys Will Be Boys," from Mr. Pickwick, a swinging air, which always meets with a warm reception.

One of the very best numbers was the reading of Miss Jessie Hamby, she selected "The Day of Judgment," which served admirably to bring out her strong dramatic powers. Miss Will parties on belt line, car going west between William and Maitland, Thursday evening, about 10 o'clock, from which lady fell and was seriously injured, kindly communicate with

CHEAPEST OF ALL MEDICINES.—
Considering the curative qualities of Dr.
Thomas' Electric Oil, it is the cheapest medicine now offered to the public. The dose required in any ailment is small, and a bottle contains many doses. If it were valued at the benefit it confers it could not be purchased for many times the price asked for it, but increased consumption has simplified and cheapened its manufacture.

What precautions are you taking to secure perfectly pure food?

Perfect purity in food is very essential to perfect health. Yet how careless we are in regard to the purity of food we eat! Scrupulous cleanliness is absolutely necessary in the preparation and handling of food. Are you sure the food you eat gets it?
