PARNELL'S HOME-MADE BREAD
There's nothing equal to "quality" in bread. Now quality is not an ingredient, it is in the ingredients, and the bakers and the method, everything is the best, every baker the best, the greatest care is taken with every loaf of Parnell's breads—so there's only one natural conclusion, and that is that Anniversary Services.

The anniversary services of St. George's Church, London Junction, are to be held tomorrow, and will be conducted by the former pastor, Rev. G. Gilmore, of Fingal. The pulpit of Fingal will be occupied by Rev. Hector Mackay.

Anniversary Tea-Meeting.
The anniversary tea-meeting of the First Congregational Church will be held next Monday evening, Oct. 19. Tea will be served from 6:30 to 8 o'clock. Revs. J. Gibson Inkster, E. B. Lanesley, W. T. Gunn and W. H. Claris will speak, and a musical programme will be rendered.

Old Boys' Meeting.
At a recent meeting of the finance committee of the Old Boys' Association, Mr. E. J. MacRobert, president of the association, was presented with a clock; Mr. B. C. McCann, the secretary, was made a grant of $500, and City Clerk Baker, who was chairman of the finance committee, was presented with a gold watch. The auditors, Mr. F. G. Jewel and Mr. J. W. Jones, were allowed $20 each for their work of auditing the books of the association.

A. O. U. W. Meeting.
A meeting of the degree teams of the A. O. U. W. was held last evening in the city hall to make arrangements for the big initiation that the members are planning in connection with the membership campaign which is to be held this month. It is expected that the initiation will be held on Nov. 10.

Coldstream Women's Institute.
The Coldstream Women's Institute held one of its most successful meetings at the home of Mrs. John E. Zavitz on Tuesday. The seventy-five ladies present were greatly pleased with the debate on the woman suffrage question. The judges found it hard to decide which side was entitled to the laurels, but at last they gave their decision in favor of the negative. Excellent music was given by talented young people at various intervals of the programme.

Asylum Dance.
The first dance of the season for the patients at the Asylum was held in the hall there last night and proved a most enjoyable affair. Quite a large number of people were in attendance and the evening was spent most pleasantly. An excellent programme of music was furnished by the Asylum orchestra. A number of other dances will be held during the season, as this means of recreation is greatly enjoyed by the patients.

Hill Street Celebration.
A most enjoyable evening was spent last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Judkins, Hill street, where a group of young people assembled to surprise their son, John, in the celebration of his twenty-first birthday. Mr. John Judkins was taken completely by surprise, but responded cheerfully to the congratulations of his friends. The evening was spent in music and games. A dainty supper was served, during which John's father used during the past twenty-one years in a feeling manner. Mr. John Judkins showed a degree of gratitude in accepting possession of the family relic. Then a volume of the church history was presented by the members of the Young People's Society of the Latter Day Saints' Church, accompanying an address read by Mr. Frank Gray. The party broke up about midnight, and the guests departed regretting that this was the last twenty-first birthday that could come to Mr. John Judkins.

ANNUAL HARVEST HOME SUPPER
Was Held Last Night in Knox Presbyterian Church.

The annual harvest home supper and concert was held in Knox Church last night, under the auspices of the Cleaners' Mission Band. From 6 until 8 an old-fashioned supper was served in the church, and fully 200 persons were in attendance. Rev. J. G. Stuart, pastor of the church, presided at the supper and at the concert following. The programme was a most varied one and was thoroughly enjoyed by all the members and visitors present. It included a piano duet by Miss Moffatt and Mr. J. McAlpine, a solo by Miss Weston, readings by Miss Duncan, a violin solo by Miss L. Bryden, a song by Miss Pearl Campbell, and solos by Misses Helen MacPherson, Mary Graham and Master Millie Armstrong. The proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to mission purposes.

SPECIAL SERVICES IN ST. LUKE'S CHURCH

Anniversary Will Be Celebrated on Sunday.

Special commemorative services will be held in St. Luke's Church, Broughdale, tomorrow in honor of St. Luke the Evangelist. Every year on the anniversary of St. Luke a celebration is held, but this year the day happened to fall on Sunday, and it was decided to observe the day by special services and on the Tuesday evening following a supper will be held to conclude the commemorative services. Rev. S. F. Robinson, of Strathroy, rural dean of Middlesex, will preach both morning and evening. Usually only an evening service is held in St. Luke's, but tomorrow both services will be held. On Tuesday evening special addresses will be given by Canon Dann, Rev. R. S. Howard and others, and the orchestra of St. Andrew's, under the leadership of Mr. Irwin, has volunteered their services to make the occasion more enjoyable.

McGILLICUDDY IN COURT

Editor Was Not Committed in Eye-Opener Case.

Calgary, Oct. 16.—When the case of Edwards vs. McGillicuddy was called this morning before Magistrates Walker and Taylor, the court room was filled to overflowing. The efforts of the prosecution were devoted to establishing that Mr. McGillicuddy had written the "Nemeses" letter which caused the libel suit. Numerous employees of the News were called, but could not swear the handwriting was the editor's. The case was concluded, but Mr. McGillicuddy was not committed. He will appear at the next sitting of the supreme court.

Visit Our Rug Room

Doubtless one reason for the continued popularity of Rugs is due to the fact that rug-makers each season are bringing out more clever reproductions of the genuine Oriental. So closely are they imitated in the Wiltons and Axminsters that it is difficult to distinguish them, only for the weaves.

WE ARE SHOWING a great variety of these handsome Rugs, in many different sizes, and also in the delicate colorings for drawing-room, reception-room and bed-room.

LOOK OVER OUR STOCK before purchasing. We also carry a large range of FINE CARPETS.
