U. S. VICE-PRESIDENT IMPLICATED IN "GRAB"

Charged by Senator With Favoring Wrong Contracts With Indians.

Muskogee, Okla., August 4.—What happened in the private office of United States Senator Thomas P. Gore, of Oklahoma, at Washington at noon last May 6 formed the basis of sensational charges involving the names of Vice-President Sherman, Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas, Congressman D. S. McGuire, of Oklahoma, and others, in a hearing before a special congressional investigating committee here today.

During the thirty or forty minutes of a conference held in that office Senator Gore testified that he was approached by Jacob L. Hamon, former chairman of the Oklahoma territorial Republican committee, and also former chairman of the Oklahoma State Republican committee, and that he was offered a bribe of $25,000, or $50,000 to remove certain legislation pending in Congress so that $3,000,000 might be paid to J. F. McMurray, an attorney at McAlester, Okla., and his associates.

Involves Large Sum.

The money was to represent "attorney fees" of 10 per cent. of $30,000, which was to be obtained from a New York syndicate for $50,000 of coal and asphalt lands now owned by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians in this state.

Vice-President Sherman was mentioned by Mr. Hamon, Senator Gore testified, as being interested in the land deal to the extent of favoring the approval by congress of what are known as McMurray contracts with the Indians.

GRAND TRUNK UNLOADED MEN

Crew That Was Dismissed Were Again Placed in Charge of Train to Get Rid of Them.

A PECULIAR INCIDENT

Local Officials Will Make No Explanation in Regard to the Matter.

The developments which took place at the Grand Trunk station yesterday afternoon in regard to Conductor Hugheson, Baggageman Willesley and brakeman Turleston, the American strikebreakers, who were dismissed, and handed their discharge checks, on Wednesday evening when they brought Express No. 5 in from the Falls, are causing general comment among railroad men and particularly among the strikers.

The three men, it is alleged, were very much under the influence of liquor, and were just about starting a fight in the baggage car, when they were dismissed.

They hung about the city all day yesterday until the arrival of Express No. 6, which goes through for the east at 11:40. This train came in charge of a regular crew.

When the crew arrived they were taken off and the men who had been dismissed were sought.

Two of them turned up, but Hugheson could not be located. The express men held for more than twenty minutes before he came running across the platform, and it was said that he came from the Tecumseh House bar. The express then went out.

The affair was the cause of the keenest discussion among the men who saw it, and also among many who were around the depot.

The explanation, that could be offered which was plausible was that given by one of the strikers, who said that he thought the company wanted to get the three men out of the count, and would allow them to take the train across the river at the Bridge.

He said they could not leave the count in any other way, as they would be held up at the border by the officers, who would not allow them to cross the train as employees.

Local officials had nothing to say in regard to the matter.

WHO WILL PUT DOWN CONDUITS IN LONDON?

Water Commissioners and the Board of Works in a Mix-Up.

Who is going to lay the conduit work on Dundas and Richmond streets—the board of works or the water commissioners?

The matter was brought up at the meeting of the board of works last night, and Engineer Roberts was asked to call for the board of works to lay the conduits.

"The board of works should lay the conduits," said Ald. Saunders, "on the opinion expressed by Mayor Gattie, I take it that we have the right to lay the conduits, and we are responsible for the work, and should at least have been consulted regarding it."

"There is no doubt in the world that it is our duty to lay the conduits," said Ald. Tancock. "We might suggest that the work be done under the supervision of an engineer."

"We cannot say that we have called for tenders," declared Ald. Saunders. "Ald. Richter is holding us to the letter of the law every way we turn, and we do not know what he is going to do with us in this matter."

"There is considerable of this work that I do not know much about," said Engineer Roberts. "I would rather not have supervision of it."

"The bylaw was passed by the council, and it certainly looks as if it is up to us," said Ald. Tancock.

After some discussion it was decided to ask Engineer Roberts to call for tenders.

"That will bring matters to a climax," said Ald. Saunders.

This was agreed to.

G. T. R. MEN IN MONTREAL

Freight Men at Work.

"Quite a lot of the men are back at work again, nearly all the freight brakemen and conductors, the yardmen and some of the engine men. The passenger men realize that it will probably be several days before they go back. Our information is that the Government has decided to let the freight men be moved, as conditions were such that the whole country was rapidly getting tied up. It will take some days to relieve this congestion, and as it is most urgent, the railway are devoting their whole attention to it. The passenger men will be looked after shortly."

Immense quantities of freight are being handled through London yards, and every few minutes last night and yesterday afternoon long trains rushed through. The great majority of the freight men are back at work, and the western division is being moved.

Mr. Heath's Complaint.

Mr. H. J. Heath, chief conductor of the Order of Railway Conductors, writes:

"I notice in your edition that the crew taken off G. T. R. train No. 6 Wednesday night was again put on train No. 5 yesterday and went east in charge of that train. Now, sir, note the law in respect to intoxicated railwaymen."

Section 413—Every conductor, engineer, train dispatcher, telegraph operator, station agent, switchman, signal man, bridge tender or any other person who is intoxicated or under the influence of liquor while on duty in charge of or in any employment having to do with the movement of trains upon any railway, is guilty of an offence and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $400, or imprisonment not exceeding five years, or both."

I wonder what has become of our authorities. Why were these men not arrested and given some of the good Canadian justice we boast about? Or has our Government fallen body and soul into the hands of C. M. Hayes? If so, may God help us, for we see no redress elsewhere.

Had this occurred to one of the old train crews they would be on their feet.

way to Kingston now, and the action would have been backed up by public sympathy. Surely we will not have to put up with this kind of thing much longer. It is evident that Mr. Hayes signed a settlement with his men, and now he has broken his faith with them.

We can get a slight look into difficulties which these men have to put up with, although they have never complained until now. It is not only a case of money but of conditions, and treatment. I understand they have never been treated like other railway men, but have always been under the iron heel, and I think they are justly entitled to the sympathy of the public and their support to bring about a just and fair conclusion to their demands.

Yours for fair play, H. J. HEATH, chief conductor O. R. C.

A COLLEGE ATHLETE BEATS INSTRUCTORS

Starts Trouble by Setting Fire to His Sheepskin.

Syracuse, Aug. 4.—Herbert W. Faus, commodore of the Syracuse 1909 crew, today assaulted Dean Sheppard, of the Layman C. Smith College of Applied Science at Syracuse University and attacked Prof. Paul C. Nugent at the latter's home. Faus, who is prominent socially on University Hill, was not graduated in June as a civil engineer. He was back in two subjects, due to his activities socially and in athletics. He has since made up the work under Prof. V. P. Graham and called upon Prof. Nugent for a certificate for his diploma. It was refused even after the professor admitted the work had been made up, until Prof. Graham telegraphed from Canada.

This afternoon Faus, who comes from Ellensburg, Pa., walked into the dean's office for the sheepskin. It was handed to him and he remarked to the dean:

"If you want to see what I think of your instructions and the diploma, I will show you." He then touched a match to the diploma and started to light a cigar with it.

"Don't try that, young man, or there will be trouble," said Dean Sheppard. "Take up your diploma, if that is what you mean," shouted Faus to the dean, who promptly led with a right to the student's nose, drawing first blood.

Faus, however, came back with a volley of jabs, and upper cuts that forced the dean to call on two men in the office for help. They did not respond and Faus dared him to summon the police. Leaving the college, Faus went to the home of Prof. Nugent and administered a severe beating to the professor also.

At police headquarters tonight it was said no report had been made of the occurrence and that no warrant had been requested.

BARONESS SELLS CIGS

Husband in Hospital She Supports Six Children.

New York, Aug. 5.—A real baroness of Breunig, the former Miss Amy Couder, sister to the Couder brothers of the famous law firm—is making a living for herself and her children in New York by selling cigarettes. It became known today.

Baron Breunig, who brought to his bride a title and splendid personality, but not very much money, is laid up in a hospital here with no prospect of being able to get about within a year, and so his wife, who hitherto has enjoyed every luxury that she desired, has gone to work and is supporting him and their six children.

Besides "boosting" the superior points of her special brand of "smokes" to clubmen and others of wealth and ability to satisfy tastes, the baroness is soliciting subscriptions to a society magazine. So plucky and persistent has she been in her work that last week she won a $300 prize for gathering a certain number of subscriptions. And she has introduced her sort of cigarettes successfully into almost every high-class club in the city.

The Baroness Breunig is living modestly at Belmar, N.J., with five of her children, and is commuting to and from New York.

Root Says Britain and States Approach Subject Differently.

Great Britain approached it from the standpoint of her sovereignty; the States from its guaranteed rights.

The States did not in any degree question the full exercise of British sovereignty in her own territory, nor did it question her control over her own subjects. But the States did question in what respect that sovereignty could change the right which had been acquired for American citizens by treaty.

It was not for the tribunal to draw the line between what it thought was competent for Great Britain to do in the exercise of her sovereign power, and what it was incompetent for Great Britain to do in respect of a modification of the American treaty rights.

Mr. Root contended that these rights could not be restricted or destroyed by regulations made by the one who gave the right, and that the grantor alone was bound to observe the conditions.

He was allowed to say what was reasonably fair, appropriate or necessary for the fisheries in which United States fishermen have been admitted to share in whatever benefits they produced.

EMPRESS MADE A RECORD

Toronto, Aug. 4.—The C. P. R. steamer Empress of Ireland, which left her dock at Liverpool at 5:20 p.m. last Friday, arrived at Rimouski this morning at 4:15 o'clock. She took 1 hour and 25 minutes to discharge the Canadian mail, and proceeded on her way to Quebec at 5:30, where she docked at 2:15 this afternoon.

This run constitutes the fastest voyage on record between Liverpool and Quebec.

Did the steamer not have to wait at Beauport Channel below Quebec for high water on which to come over the bar, this time would have been reduced another two hours.

HITS BEACH ADONISES.

New York, Aug. 5.—Capt. Galvin, of Coney Island, has ordered that men who pose in tightly fitting bathing suits on the beaches must go. Hereafter modesty will be the watchword from Seagate to Manhattan Beach.

"We have been receiving so many complaints lately," said Capt. Galvin, "that I have instructed the men to arrest every man who wears one of those tight fitting suits or a one-piece suit. I'm tired of those Adonises who put on their suits and pose. I've looked over my own self, and some of the suits I've seen are indecent."
