[Special to The Advertiser.]

Chicago, May 4.—With magnificent fieldfing support, its features including that unusual performance, a triple play and a double killing on the only other occasion on which the Sox threatened George on which the Sox threatened, George Mullin pitched the Tigers to their second NAPS AND BROWNS shut-out victory against the Sox this afternoon, the score being 4 to 0.

Detroit evened it up on the local series through a defense that wavered only once, and that immediately redeemed itself, and by a series of vicious attacks on Doc White, usually their puzzle. Triple Play the Feature.

Overshadowing all other features of the game, both as a spectacular performance and because of its important bearing on the game, was the hair-raising triple that Simmons started in the second inning. Detroit had two runs to the good, and Chicago seemed on the way to overtaking this when Dougherty, first batter of the second inning, made first on Delehanty's and of his fly, and advanced to second muff of his fly, on Cole's single.

Purtell had two strikes called on him when he met one. He smashed it toward right, and there were visions of a run over and another man on third. But Simmons was right in the path of the half. He grabbed it, thereby retiring the batter. He touched the sack and thus doubled Cole.

Worked Too Easy. Both runners had started with the crack of the bat, and Simmons thus had plenty of time to turn and throw to little sush, who was covering second and yelling for the ball. It beat Dougherty back, and the side was wiped out and a promising inning ended almost in a twinkle. The ians a Look-In Yesterday.

Newark, N. J., May 4.—"Well, I'll be gum swizzled!" said Manager Bill Smith, as the Bisons were packing their bats after today's battle and he realized that Newark had copped just one more game, this one at the expense of Buffalo by the score of 4 to 2. Smith led his charges against the Tigers, bent on breaking up the natives' winning streak, but he was unable to solve the combination, and as a result cannot hope to return home in first place, even if they lasso the next three games, which, by the way, is not exactly a lead pipe cinch. The verdict tomorrow may be different, but today, if the worst must be known, Buffalo had no more chance than a dog with cellulated of the state of the
