Several Government candidates have taken him at his word by pledging themselves to such a course. The dishonesty of Dr. Pyne's attitude will be apparent when erased, whether the Liberal or Conservative party is in office, and the two parties should likewise join in courageously reforming abuses and insisting upon the principle of an English education for every Ontario child. Mr. Rowell has at least indicated where he stands. Sir James Whitney has so far ignored the issue, but allows Dr. Pyne and other followers to make a deceptive bid for votes.

Mr. Ewart's plea for what he calls Canadian independence has exposed him to misapchension and attack. In reality he advocates the full measure of Canadian autonomy, but without separation from the crown.
