LIFE INSURANCE FOR WOMEN.

Nearly all the arguments used in favor of insurance for men apply for the most part in favor of insurance on the lives of women. Those women who have others more or less dependent upon them, who are wage-earners, or who have independent incomes, should welcome in rance, both for its protective and investment features. The wife and nother may not today stand in need of protection, but who can tell now soon she may be the sole support of an invalid husband, or of minor children? "You don't need to cross a bridge until you come to "is a wise old saying, but the life insurance situation can be more appily expressed by another old saying: "In time of peace prepare war." There is always the danger that one may not be able to get the insurance when it is most needed.

So far as the investment feature is concerned, nothing in the range of business experience is more suited to the needs of women than the endowment policy, the advantages of which every woman should clearly Government bought a cargo of Argentine wheat at New York, and also the rumor that a big export business had been done, caused the shorts to cover. Wheat took new life and went up nearly 3c in a short time. The feature of the market was the buying of future oats. One of the local commission houses took big lets of all months, process took big ious nights. Plums particularly, were scarce, and brought from 30c to 60c a basket. Apples, however, remained steady at 50c to 80c a bushel, while peaches were slightly cheaper, at 50c to 80c a basket. Grapes, too, were cheap, selling at 25c to 30c a basket. Pears were steady, selling for $\frac{1}{2}$ to $30c a basket. Pears were steady, selling for $\frac{1}{2}$ to $30c a basket. There was no change in the price of canteloupes, which sold at $\frac{1}{2}$ to $2.25 a dozen.

Tomatoes rose suddenly, and scarcely any were sold at less than 50c a basket. Potatoes were unchanged at $\frac{1}{2}$ for $\frac{2}{2}$ a bushel. Cabbage remained high at 50c to $\frac{2}{2}$ a dozen, and carrots were steady at 30c a dozen.

Green corn was fairly plentiful, and brought 10c to $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ a dozen.

Liverpool Sept. 20.—Wheat developed considerable strength today, influenced more or less by London admissions that the armies of Rumania were in a perilyous position, and by Russian advices that it was not expected the Dardon and the sections of the set many buying orders to this market.

Georgia sent bullish market, and there was free purchasing there attributed to the continental demand, and Liverpool has sent many buying orders to this market.

Georgia sent bullish reports regarding picking and ginning, and they were not without some effect, and from onterview to American wheat in order to forestall a possible American embargo later.

OTTAWA, HALIFAX, ST. JOHN, CHARLOTTETOWN, MONTREAL, TORONTO, WINNIPEG, REGINA, CALGARY, VICTORIA.

INTEREST PAYABLE HALF-YEARLY, 1st APRIL, 1st OCTOBER. PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD.

A FULL HALF-YEAR'S INTEREST WILL BE PAID ON 1st APRIL. 1917. THE PROCEEDS OF THE LOAN WILL BE USED FOR WAR PURPOSES ONLY.

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE offers herewith, on behalf of the Government, the above named Bonds for subscription at 974, payable as follows:-

10 per cent on application;

30 " " 16th October, 1916; 30 " " 15th November, 1916; 30 "

" 15th December, 1916. The total allotment of bonds of this issue will be limited to one hundred million dollars exclusive of the amount (if any) paid for by the surrender of bonds as the equivalent of cash under the terms of the War Loan prospectus of 22nd November, 1915.

The instalments may be paid in full on the 16th day of October, 1916, or on any instalment due date thereafter, under discount at the rate of four per cent per annum. All payments are to be made to a chartered bank for the credit of the Minister of Finance. Failure to pay any instalment when due will render previous payments liable to forfeiture and the allotment to cancellation.

Subscriptions, accompanied by a deposit of ten per cent of the amount subscribed, must be forwarded through the medium of a chartered bank. Any branch in Canada of any chartered bank will receive subscriptions and issue provisional receipts.

This loan is authorized under Act of the Parliament of Canada, and both principal and interest will be a charge upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund. Forms of application may be obtained from any branch in Canada of any chartered bank and at the office of any Assistant Receiver General in Canada. Subscriptions must be for even hundreds of dollars.

In case of partial allotments the surplus deposit will be applied towards payment of the amount due on the October

Scrip certificates, non-negotiable or payable to bearer in accordance with the choice of the applicant for registered or bearer bonds, will be issued, after allotment, in exchange for the provisional receipts.

When the scrip certificates have been paid in full and payment endorsed thereon by the bank receiving the money, they may be exchanged for bonds, when prepared, with coupons attached, payable to bearer or registered as to principal, or for fully registered bonds, when prepared, without coupons, in accordance with the application.

Delivery of scrip certificates and of bonds will be made through the chartered banks. The issue will be exempt from taxes-including any income tax-imposed in pursuance of legislation enacted by the Parliament of Canada.

The bonds with coupons will be issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000. Fully registered bonds without coupons will be issued in denominations of $1,000, $5,000 or any authorized multiple of $5,000.

The bonds will be paid at maturity at par at the office of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General at Ottawa. or at the office of the Assistant Receiver General at Halifax, St. John, Charlottetown, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Regina, Calgary, or Victoria. The interest on the fully registered bonds will be paid by cheque, which will be remitted by post. Interest on bonds with coupons will be paid on surrender of coupons.

Both cheques and coupons will be payable free of exchange at any branch in Canada of any chartered bank. Subject to the payment of twenty-five cents for each new bond issued, holders of fully registered bonds without coupons will have the right to convert into bonds of the denomination of $1,000 with coupons, and holders of bonds with coupons will have the right to convert into fully registered bonds of authorized denominations without coupons at any time on application to the Minister of The books of the loan will be kept at the Department of Finance, Ottawa.

Application will be made in due course for the listing of the issue on the Montreal and Toronto Stock Exchanges.

Recognized bond and stock brokers will be allowed a commission of one-quarter of one per cent on allotments made in respect of applications bearing their stamp, provided, however, that no commission will be allowed in respect of the amount of any allotment paid for by the surrender of bonds issued under the War Loan prospectus of 22nd November, 1915. No commission will be allowed in respect of applications on forms which have not been printed by the King's Printer.

Subscription Lists will close on or before 23rd September, 1916.
