WOMEN'S HOME AND MAGAZINE

fe Well-Ordered, Not Militaristic, At Guide Leaguers' Camp.

ass Studies Bird Lore, Baby Care, Cooks, Plays, Is Happy.

-All up. 45—Flag-raising; prayers.

-Breakfast. 30—Tidy rooms; inspection, 30—Court of honor. —Child-nursing lecture,

-Child-nursing ha Smith Signalling, tests, etc. 30-Dinner.

-Rest hou Talk on birds, W. E. Saunders 30-Tea.

Taps; bed. 30—Lights out e foregoing were orders for a for the Girl Guide Leaders' half so iron-clad as they sound-nor the discipline of a military house

rity expected. a country road that turned uninel gateposts of stone, along a ing avenue lined on either side

e who enjoy their meals with n fear of indigestion.—Advt.

Absorb Freckles And Other Blemishes

ed wax

Patent Leather Buckle Slippers

t Your Price! For $3.75

For $4.95

For $8.00

h and heel fitting .....$8.00

and waltz.

of St. Paul's Cathedral held Monday,

HOLD MUSIC CLUB FINAL.

The final recital of the season of the Woman's Music Club, postponed sented by Miss Minnie Raymond, O to the big storm which tied up the George Winterbottom.

City that day, takes place on Thurs Delightful variety will be added by day evening this week, April 20, in the Normal School, at 8 p.m.

charming dance forms-program ar-ranged for the former date by Mrs. Marjorie Partridge, with violin ob Edwin Paull and Miss Mabel Stevens. ligato, by Miss Leona Murphy.

stone house with balconies delight-fully hung in unexpected places, and built-out chimneys enhancing the day season. But, if easy, discipline picturesqueness. Following the drive-way like a guard of honor stood a trim hedge of shrubbery promising richest incense and gorgeous bloom in syringa-blossom time.

for the Girl Guide Leaders' in Ended or a for the Girl Guide Leaders' green lawn, rose a round tower with iron ladders. The practical person said: "A silo." The scientific-minded: "A water tower." But the romantic souls refused to believe it was any-bitable farm house Tuesday thing but a splendidly preserved old. Tuesday thing but a splendidly-preserved old oon. round-tower fortress, to which the routine, it was stated, was lord of the manor and his dependents al of every day of the well-ned camp life. But a couple of Redmen skulked up the hills from y liours spent with the class and the river, be-feathered and war-convinced that regulations were painted, tomahawks in hand.

The door of the mansion swung open to emit a tantalizing odor of cooking that came from the generous kitchen to the left, where the octedly and climbed a breath-ng hill the trail led through ting dinner.

Right in front of the top were glass doors leading out to a spacious veranda that miraculously was almost on a level with the ground on that side. Down, down, the ground rolled state that nearly its wooded, flower-dappled way to the trout ponds, then across field to etc., are due to doric acid in the swollen.

> The secretary, Miss Davis, had her office in a nook in the south end of the hall, where a piano also fitted snugly, but comfortably. In the big suiting your with its books and cosy for the occasion.
>
> was performed by Rev. J. Mackillop, has chosen the viola as its median by the viola as its median.
>
> B.A. The room was tastefully for expression. Fitting happily into such a family arranged with daffodils and pink arranged with daffodils and pink arranged with daffodils and pink for the occasion. sitting-room with its books and cosy seats girls read, wrote, chatted or The bride was

> The dinner bell rang and there was a cheerful, hurried movement towards the dining-room, where the patrol that had cooked the plain, but delicious dinner, also served.
>
> Supported by institute, Tooler, Toole is dinner, also served. Right up to the windows outside the 1922 models of "Mary's lamb" to make a calm survey of the human us inquiries are some reliable diners, turning round to nibble away freckles. Very at their own mid-day meal of tender young grass, and tid-bits in the way of gardened hepaticas and English

> Was it "cakes and pies for officers' wives," while "poor privates' wives the vicinity of Mitchell. Rev. Law-had skilly? Not a bit of it. From the provincial commissioner and camp com- home. mandant, and distinguished lecturers. For right down to the newest guide everybody had savory spiced beef, mashed potatoes, piping hot, cream-nd wiped the last dish.

But the dinner patrol of Tuesday il be the tea patrol of Wednesday, nd the breakfast of Thursday, and each in turn gets heavy and light duty, all having responsibility for keeping their own rooms or corners thereof models of neatness.

initiate his class into the mysteries and delights of birdland, he didn't sung by Mr. Harold Wildgust during narangue im front of the fire. He arrangue in front of the model slopes and the ceremony the guests were enterinted to this and that citizen of alling attention to its characteristic as the subject to be experimented upon, for correct methods of bathing, dressing, etc.

Enthusiastic stories were told of Enthusiastic stories were told of the good times around the hearth fire at night, and the hearth fire sounded inviting with a flurry of Galt; Mrs. Riley, Miss Freda Wilsounded inviting with a flurry of are exercised and suggestions made Wildgust, Mrs. Palser, Mrs. Ebsworfor guide camp evenings in the summer days to come. nebody wants to know.

"Is it a sort of court-martial cere- ceived by the happy couple.

At the meeting of the Ladies' Guild contralto, of Strathroy, and a number, in which Carman Learn, of St. Paul's Cathedral held Monday, the members voiced their appreciation for the flowers sent by the congregation for Easter. Mrs. W. J. Robinson presided in the absence of Robinson presided in the Robinson presided i

As an opening number "The Invitation to the Dance" (Weber), arranged for two pianos, will be prefrom the evening of April .2, owing Leo Herbert, Mrs. Hubert Eckert and interpretive dances, "The Taran-telle," by Isabel McCrimmon and Additions which will be much appreciated have been made to the Gavotte," Lucy Downham and Lucy Downham and eene; "To a Wild Rose, they will remember happily ever To the east, across a stretch of after as the country home of their

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Tuesday, April 18, at high noon, Rev. J. E. Hunter officiating. The Dr. Percy Saunders. sighed in the stiff April breeze, apply the earth dropped down, now on one side, now the other, to deep valleys, in the st of which rippled shining trout is, island studded. In the heart was one of nkspiving for a capable driver at wheel of the car. A turn, the ant assent of uplawn, and agrand rish in front of a stately grey TIDS IN STOMACH

CAUSE INDIGESTION

In the center of the long one an old-asshoned, revolving table, the "self-asshoned, revolving table, the "self-asshoned in match. The young couple were unattended. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's garrents, where a dainty wedding the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's garrents, where a dainty wedding the rever" of the bride party motored to the home of the bride's cale festival, devoting hours to play-ing chamber music. This year the ceremony the bride party music to play-ing chamber music. This year the ceremony the bride's familitury attraction to play-ing chamber music.

The faces of the people still festival, devoting hours to play-i hall led to a region of surprises. ing, Mich., the young couple will reside in their new home in Lambeth two 'cellos and a viola. and will be at home to their friends after May 1.

MACKILLOP-MORRISH.

The secretary, Miss Davis, had her office in a nook in the south end of B.A. The room was tastefully for expression.

seats girls read, wrote, chatted or just purred in the warmth of the open hearth fire. On the table were bowls of hepaticas, and Naturalist W. E. Saunders drew attention to the variety of the coloring, the difference in size and number of petals.

The dinner bell rang and there was the season of the season of their friends at the groom's

WALLCOMB-SCOTT.

Saturday afternoon, the marriage Scott, Granton, to Norman Wallcomb, a prosperous young farmer of of Birdland life. son tied the nuptial knot. The young couple left Monday for their future

HALLSWORTH-DIGBY.

A very pretty wedding took place n Saturday afternoon, April 15, 1922, of nuts and peel and such good was married to Mr. Sidney Hallsthings. maid of honor, and Miss Eva May Ebsworthy the flower girl, while Mr. James Bright acted as best man. The When Mr. Saunders wanted to wedding march was played by Miss the signing of the register. After tained at a wedding breakfast at the was enjoyed by the members of the home of Mrs. Reed, 42 Grosvenor Street, aunt of the groom. Cables A. and assisting artists who pre-Miss Bertha Smith, supervisor of wishing the newly-wedded couple sented before a most appreciative child welfare nurses, is giving a course of lectures on caring for babies, with a most realistic dummy babies, with a most realistic dummy below. It is a supervisor of lectures of caring for babies, with a most realistic dummy bride in England. Mr. and Mrs. Setural supervisor of lectures on caring for babies, with a most realistic dummy bride in England. Mr. and Mrs. Arriving at their destination they Hallsworth left on a wedding trip, the bride traveling in a smart tweed per by the Women's Institute, after 12th line suit and black hat.

Among those present at the kins, Miss Dora Yorke-Hardy, Mr. April snow in the air.

It's round the hearth fire that talents for story telling, singing and doing various entertaining stunts wildgust, Mrs. Palser, Mrs. Ebswor-Wildgust, Mrs. Ebswor-Wildgust, Mrs. Ebswor-Wildgust, Mrs. Pal Miss Winnie Reed, J. Reed, C. Reed, "But what's the court of honor?" Master Ben Reed, Master W. Webber. handsome presents were re Many

Served Overseas During War Days; Take Up Guiding With Enthusiasm

Princess' Gift Fund Is Still Growing.

THOUGH almost two months have elapsed since the wedding day of England's fairy princess, the fund for her weding gift is still growing in London town. This is due to the fact that its "destined end" is to endow a cot in the War Memorial Children's Hospital at a cost of $1,000. The convener of the hospital committee, Mrs. A. H. Smith, speaks optimistically of the prospects of completing the fund in the near fu-The following are the latest donations to be acknowl edged: Mrs. R. J. Henderson $25; Miss Ethel Davies, $5 Miss Mary Hedd, $1; Mrs. Wright, $1; S. S. No. 5, Byron, per Miss Coulton, $11. Total, $43.

Feast of Music Marks Reunion

Talented Saunders Family Holds Annual House Party in Clinton, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Saunders, Miss on Tuesday, April 18, at high noon, at the Lambeth Methodist parsonage, Nan Saunders and Mr. and Mrs. with Canadians when she was on duty at Peel House, near Victoria, when Eva Belle, youngest daughter Howard F. Fetherston leave Wednes- London, a club for overseas men on of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Joyes day for Clinton, N. Y., where they leave. Assisting her were a number was united in marriage to Albert W. will attend the annual reunion of Holmes of Southampton, England, the Saunders family, in the home of the front.

In the big dining-room on the staff April breeze.

sighed in the stiff april breeze.

sight the tables were already laid, blue charmenus sating own, beaded the sating and the stiff april breeze.

sight the stiff april breeze.

sight the stiff april breeze.

sin

Brilliant Amateurs. While Henry Saunders of Toronte formerly of London, is widely known as a leading Canadian 'cellist, equalling him in talent and in mastery An interesting wedding was that of of their own instruments are his two An interesting wedding was that of of their own instruments are his two to the river, turbulent, brown-yellow, swollen. Across there was more to meadowland and treed hillsides, then is the skyline of vivid blue, fleeced with clouds.

An interesting wedding was that of of their own instruments are his two Miss Eva May Morrish to Archibald MacKillop, both of Dutton, Ont. browness whose other duties have mackillop, both of Dutton, Ont. browness there was more which took place Wednesday afternoon, April 12, at the Presbyterian professional class. They are Dr. professional class. They are Dr. willingt, and Fred Saunders, who manse, Hyde Park. The ceremony willingt, and Fred Saunders, who

The bride was handsomely gowned minion Experimental Farm, Ottawa, gagement before leaving the city byterian Missionary and Deaconess Wednesday was to deliver a delightful "filustrated" lecture on bird lore home on her vacation, gave an in-and-bird life to the guide leaders at-teresting talk at the April meeting tending the provincial training camp of Kintore Presbyterian W. S took place in the Presbyterian manse, at the Cronyn Farm. Doubtless, if Robert McNally, Mrs. Hugh Rout-Granton, of Grace Scott, youngest time permits during the present redaughter of Mr. and Mrs. James union, there will be trips to groves James Calder were program conand woods to get a close-up view

Plan Sextets.

Thursday is to be "arrival day," when all the members of the wellknown Canadian family will assemble quartet music, and Saturday the ambitious musical program day, sexed corn, bread and butter and a at St. George's Church, when Miss tets for strings will be essayed, with toothsome light pudding with a hint Nellie Digby, of London, England, the assistance of the visiting artists. Dr. Charles Saunders of Ottawa, who has recently resigned his post After the last crumb was gone, there was leisure for rest, until the industrious dinner patrol had washed. The bride looked charming in her will be present, but will not take part gown of white satin, trimmed with handsome lace, and wearing a beautiriage by Mr. J. Reed, cousin of the once, just to rest and enjoy the engroom. Miss Winnie Reed was the tertainment afforded by the others.

LONDON PLAYERS GO A-TRAVELING

A delightful trip to Mount Brydges were entertained at a bountiful supwhich the play was given in the auditorium of the attractive War Memorial Community Hall.

ceeded through the confession of Vincent Grafton the villain of the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carmody, the trained nurse; the advenment of their friends of long stands more of their friends of long stands of the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carmody, the trained nurse; the advenment of their friends of long stands of their more of their friends of long stands of the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carmody, the trained nurse; the advenment of their more of their friends of long stands of the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carmody, the trained nurse; the advenment of the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carmody, the trained nurse; the advenment of the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carmody, the trained nurse; the advenment of the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carmody, the trained nurse; the advenment of the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carmody, the trained nurse; the advenment of the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carmody, the trained nurse; the advenment of the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carmody, the trained nurse; the advenment of the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carmody, the trained nurse; the advenment of the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carmody, the trained nurse; the advenment of the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carmody, the trained nurse; the advenment of the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carmody, the trained nurse; the advenment of the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carmody, the trained nurse; the advenment of the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carmody, the trained nurse; the advenment of the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carmody, the piece, and proposal to Joyce Carm the country cousins to New York, and tieth wedding anniversary. the inevitable wedding bells.

The patrol leaders with regard to their programs, but "court of honor" is much more interesting and picturesque.

Camp breaks up on Saturday, the Second provincial training camp for leaders that has ever been held in leaders that has ever been held in Contario. It is understood that the leaders with regard to their programs, but "court of honor" is much more interesting and picturesque.

Crawlord, with Misses Ger-stage manager, were: Misses Ger-diately, Jean Motivate Parker, Ada Mininelly, Jean Motivate Parker, Ada Mininell

Out at the Easter week Guide leaders' training camp on the Cronyn farm are several young women who gained valuable experience in discipline and service in war days.

Miss Kaye Symes of Ottawa, chief of the instructional staff, who has been interested in Guide work for nine and a half years, according to her own statement, served overseas in war days as a V. A. D., and looks to the Guide commissioner's uniform She is commissioner, by the way, for three eastern counties, with Ottawa as the centre.

Miss Lodder, her assistant, formerly of the Toronto Girl Guide Council, now of the Canadian, in the troublous war times in England, her home land, enlisted with the "W.R.A.F.'s," doing her bit in connection with the Royal Air Force

A smart figure in a becoming khaki uniform is Miss Elizabeth Hughes now of Hamilton, late of London, England. During the war she was for a time with Queen Mary's army auxiliary corps, popularly known as "W. A. A. C.'s." She had charge at Charlton Park, near Woolwich, of three hostels for women, who cooked, washed and rendered other ser-vice. The oldest of her "charges" was 49 years old, the youngest 15. She arranged for them readings, music, lectures and addresses, what they enjoyed most of all, dances, to which they asked their men friends, and looked after their welfare in general,

With the voluntary corps, the "Green Cross," she came in contact of Canadian women, whose husbands were on duty either in England or at

She came out to Canada a couple of years ago, when rationing was still

Western Ontario Women's Activities

Address News For This Column to The Editor of Woman's Page.

A very enjoyable evening was spent in the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Taylor, Parkhill, recently, when the members of the W. M. S. with their husbands, about fifty in number, assembled in honor of Mrs. Harry Ferguson and Mrs. Emory, who are removing from Centenary.

After presenting each with luncheon tray, the ladies served a dainty supper followed by an hour of music and social chat. The removal of these families is much regretted, and the best wishes of all go with them to their new

KINTORE W. M. S.

veners, Mrs. H. Routledge presiding. Missionary papers were given by Mrs. N. H. McGee, Mrs. George Sims and Mrs. J. R. Armstrong. The secretary, Mrs. R. A. McDonald, read letter from Rev. A. J. Hunonin of in Clinton, N. Y. Friday a generous Victoria Mine, Ontario, thanking the share of the time will be given to Victoria Mine, Ontario, thanking the Helen Marshall, Central avenue for six Presbyterian Records for his reading-room, and also a very in- home from Hamilton after spending teresting and encouraging report of Easter with her father, Mr. Adam the work that has been done, and the Brown. very great interest the settlers are taking in the work in that mission-ary field. A sacred violin selection will be present, but will not take part by Miss Margaret McPherson, acwas much enjoyed. Mrs. Charles ful veil sent to her by her mother in England. She was given in mar-Chalmers closed the meeting with

GRACE COUNTRY CLUB. The regular meeting of the club tion in Hamilton the guest of Miss was held on Saturday, April 8. at the Florence Leitch. home of Miss Annie Leonard, with a good attendance. During this meeting the girls de- guest with Mr. and Mrs. A. Rogers, cided to buy Turkish toweling from Rouleau, Saskatchewan, for the which to make towels and wash Thompson-Rogers wedding, which cloths for the War Memorial Chil- takes place this week. dren's Hospital. After the business meeting dainty afternoon tea was en-

Saturday, April 22, at the home of week Misses Mabel and Marjorie Matheson, tures of the French maid and sum- ing, who called on them to offer Lawson took the twelve young guests evening, arranged in honor of mer boarder, and finally the visit of hearty congratulations on their fiftokens of love and good-will were Those taking part in the produc-tion, under the direction of Mrs. John Mr. and Mrs. Goward were marrie

GRAY'S, LIMITED

On Sale Tomorrow (Thursday) New Spring Goods Exceptional Values

NEW GINGHAMS

ANDERSON SCOTCH GINGHAMS, wide width, new patterns, including the popular block check; colors greens, pinks, lavenders, browns, tans, reds, yellow, light blue and black and white. Price, yard ... 50c

WASH GOODS in plain colorschambrays, nurses' cloth, alma; colors greens, blues, yellow, mauves, pinks and sand shades. Price, peryard, from ...... 20c to 45c Staple Dept., Main Floor.

OPPORTUNE SALE OF Awning Ducks

Get your awning materials now and be prepared for the warm season. STRIPED AWNING DUCKS, millends, in wanted colors of tans, greens, navys, reds. Regular 50c and 60c. Thursday's sale price, a yard ...... 35c

Staple Dept., Main Floor.

Mill-Ends Sale

Dress Ginghams and Chambrays, 1 to 6 yard lengths. Sale price, yard ...... 15c, 19c, 25c

Buy now and save 15e to 25e a yard.

Sale of Dress Aprons

40 DOZEN ONLY ON SALE THURSDAY.

LADIES' HOUSE DRESS APRONS of good quality chambray and striped prints (seconds). Sale price

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY.

LADIES' HOUSE DRESS APRONS of gingham, cretonne and striped print trimmed with ric-rac braid (seconds). Sale price, each ......

ANNOUNCEMENT

Miss Giles, Butterick representative from Toronto, will be with us for the following five weeks, giving a very special offer for the Butterick fashion book. The Delineator. Miss Giles will be at the Pattern Counter from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., and will be glad to explain anything in connection with the Butterick Patterns and Deltor

The Delineator

MAY, 1922. Late spring and early summer styles, 20c

Butterick (Summer) Quarterly

35c a copy, including coupon good for 10e off any Butterick Pattern.

500 DESIGNS FOR THE NEW SPRING SEASON BUTTERICK PATTERNS WITH THE DELTOR, NOW ON SALE .- Pattern Counter, Main Floor.

GRAY'S, LIMITED

AGENTS FOR THE BUTTERICK PATTERNS, THE DELINEATOR

Miss Catherine Paton of Camlachie friends in the city.

Miss Catharine Ross of Toronto is a visitor in town the guest of Mrs. Mrs. E. B. Smith has returned

Mrs. D. Smeaton of Abbetsford. Quebec, is spending a few weeks in London with her sister, Mrs. George Mrs. Rowley Yeates of Montreal, accompanied by her two children, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Jones, King street.

Miss Helen Chapman, Piccadilly

street, is spending the Easter vaca-Miss Madeline Jeffries is a house

Miss Bertha Smith, superintendent oyed.

The next meeting wil be held on the convention in Brantford this leaturday. April 22 at the home of week of the Ontario Graduate Nurses' Association.

The Ladies' Guild of the Church of St. John the Evangelist is plan-GOLDEN WEDDING ning a musicale to be held at the Starting with an automebile accident, the action of the play proceeded through the confession of the play proceeded through the confession.

to "The Prince of Mythland."

Crawford, with Miss Ora White as at Poble, Dorset, England, April 15, lowing a theatre party to witness the

Who but an ingenious French designer would dream of straw trimmings in Tomato Red? Yet how delightfully artistic is this Frenchy touch - as some of our new Blouse Models reveal.

Paris also dictated the idea for our "bead" trimmingsand a host of other irresistibly smart things. Our new Blouses will charm you-come in and see them.

Silk Underwear of the famous D'Allaird quality materials made in our own workrooms Call and see them.

"Beechwood." Following dancing a Mr. and Mrs. James Goward, 155 Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lawson enter-dainty buffet supper was served.

nephew, Freeman Reason, and his guest, Harold Waltz of Toledo, tak-In honor of Miss Catharine Ross ing his guests to the Lord Roberts Mr. and Mrs. Goward were married at Poble. Dorset, England, April 15

Those

on our

When your child is restless, peevish, sleepless, or when con-vulsions threaten, it indicates the ravages of worms and that the little one's strength is being sapped and undermined. Miller's Worm Powders get promptly at the root of the trouble and restore the digestive organs to a healthy condition. Sold by all druggists.

Contain No Narcotics