FAVOR TAILORED SUITS

Watch Fob Is an Important Accessory to Mannish Suit Coat.

What is going to be worn? That is the question which is bothering every little hopped head and every other sort of head in the city. And the sooner it's answered, the sooner there'll be peace in the family.

So here goes! And it ought to be right for it comes from no less a person than A. M. Trick of the Smallman & Ingram firm, who has just returned from a buying trip to New York, where he saw with the connoisseur's eye, many fetching costumes on the stage as well as in the shops and on the avenue.

To begin with milady's feet. If she is "smart" she will walk out in stockings of sunburnt shade, very much the tone of an Arab's bare limb. And she will never dare depart from this shade, no matter what the color of the shoes or gown.

Indeed to have shoes and stockings match will be to commit one of fashion's biggest faux pas. Shoes will be black for the most part, characterized by many slashes and fancy over-strappings. Gray and sand shoes will also be worn, but always with stockings of a contrasting shade.

Just ten inches from the ground is the point set for the hem of milady's skirt, according to Mr. Trick. And if she is ultra smart, it will be a suit skirt, for suits are really coming back this season.

The men-tailored O'Connell suit is making a big bid for popularity. In fact all of the suits which are being favored by the smart women are cut along the mannish or boyish lines with breast pockets, out of which the inevitable watch fob hangs. Indeed the watch fob is a most important accessory to the spring suit.

Reddy Fox and Old Man Coyote Are Forced To Share Their Dinner

By THORNTON W. BURGESS.
Reddy Fox was scared! Yes, sir, Reddy was scared! He wishes now he hadn't wanted to see the disappointment of Old Man Coyote when he discovered the empty pan in Farmer Brown's barnyard. Reddy had himself been so disappointed the night before when he had discovered the empty pan, and his nose told him that it had been emptied by Old Man Coyote. Reddy had wanted to see Old Man Coyote, but now Reddy was running as only a badly-scared fox can run. A fight with Old Man Coyote was the last thing in the world that Reddy wanted.

"It is of no use for me to try to play tricks on that fellow the way I

Just as important as the monogram to the tailored gown.

These suits are very smart with their short, hip length coats, made of pencil stripe material or point twill. Black is the smartest color, but navy, gray and sand have a strong following. White suits with spark red trimmings and navy suits with bright red, will also be popular.

In the tailored gowns, monograms are the feature. Placed on the left breast, these smart little accessories are often of oriental or Tutan-khamen design with hieroglyphics in place of letters. Others bear the correct monogram of the wearer.

WOMEN and THE HOME

ROYAL COUPLE ON HONEYMOON.

Prince Erik of Denmark and his bride, Princess Erik, formerly Miss Lois Bath of Ottawa, are shown arriving in New York City on the first lap of an extended honeymoon. They will sail from the American metropolis tomorrow, expecting to visit a number of the royal families of Europe before their return to their new home in California.

WEDDINGS

CHARLES-FOSTER.

A pretty wedding took place at 2:30 o'clock at All Saints' Anglican Church Saturday afternoon, when Doris Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Foster, Egerton street, was married to John Charles, son of Mr. Charles, South London. Rev. A. A. Bies performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her eldest brother, James Foster, wore a graceful gown of gray crepe de chine, with touches of coral velvet, and wore coral ornaments. The bride carried a shagreen bouquet of Ophelia roses, and wore a becoming gray picture hat, with trimmings in pastel shades. Miss Kathleen Charles acted as bridesmaid, and wore a pretty gown of sand cotton crepe, with a bouquet of Ophelia roses, and wore an orchid hat. Mr. Roland Foster, a brother of the bride, acted as best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, with Misses G. B. and Mrs. William Jeffrey, became the bride of Arnett Rufflen Laine, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Laine, 136 Cheap-side street, of this city. The wedding ceremony took place at the bride's home, Wilton Grove, the Rev. Mr. McIntosh of London officiating.

Both are well known throughout Western Ontario, the groom being a former London newspaper man, known to his many friends as "Doc." The bride has been of the most popular girls in her community. The bride was charmingly attired in a brown silk velvet brocade French georgette dress, with faux and brown taffeta hat to match. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses.

Attending her as bridesmaid was Miss Bessie Laine, wearing a mauve taffeta hat, and carrying a bouquet of sweet peas and sweet heart. Miss Ruth McLean, played the wedding march, while Miss M. Laine sang very sweetly, "O, Perfect Love."

Miss McLean wore a gray canton crepe dress with mauve taffeta hat. Miss Beulah Laine, sister of the groom, wore a black brocade velvet dress and black hat, and carried a dainty bouquet of orchids and violets. Douglas Laine, brother of the groom, was best man.

Jack O'Brien acted as ring bearer, while Ruth Beatty, dressed in white, carried the bride's train.

Weak, Nervous Men And Women Quickly Gain New Strength

They Renew Vitality and Nerve Force by a Home Treatment Costing Only Ten Cents a Day

The nerve power of our systems finds its life in our blood. Create more blood, make the blood richer and we rekindle the fire of bodily strength, for rich, red blood is the driving force of life.

If we are too exhausted, lack confidence and sustaining power, are nervous, irritable, sleep fitfully and awake unrefreshed; if we are too thin, pale, anaemic looking, we should think first of our blood. Build more red blood. Gain new strength. Nourish the body tissues. Rejuvenate ourselves. It is red blood that makes our bodies tingle with the pulsing of life.

Men and women who need a blood builder should get at once to their drugs and obtain a generous dose of Wincamax. Here is a home treatment that costs less than ten cents a day. Wincamax gives your blood the vitalizing elements that it needs. In twelve days, morning, noon and evening, take a generous dose of Wincamax. You will worry no longer because of falling strength.—Advt.
