MASS MEETING AT OPERA HOUSE

Large Audience to Hear Rev. W. D. Wilson Sunday Afternoon.

A numerous and attentive audience greeted Mr. W. D. Wilson the travelling Secretary of the N. B. Temperance Alliance on Sunday afternoon. The chair was taken by His Worship Mayor N. C. MacKay. In a few brief remarks, Major MacKay expressed himself as feeling it an honour to be asked to preside at this meeting. He said that while dissatisfaction might exist over the non-enforcement or inefficient enforcement of the law, no one could doubt that prohibition had been of vast benefit to the country. He then introduced Mr. Boothroy as the first speaker.

Mr. Boothroy said in brief that the liquor question was the largest social question of the day. It was larger than the tariff or the navy or any other public question of Canada. The liquor traffic had besmirched and hurt our political life. It was the evil of party politics. It was politically an evil. It was an injury to the public health. It had killed more than smallpox or influenza. The medical profession was almost solidly against it. Lastly, it was economical bad and in this day we cannot afford to waste. He concluded by extending an invitation to all present to enroll in the Alliance, for the help of everyone would be needed in the coming referendum.

Mr. Wilson on rising to speak was greeted with loud applause. He said that this temperance question was a question for the doctor, the lawyer, the social worker and the minister. The doctor called intemperance a disease; the lawyer, a crime; to the social worker it was a vice and to the minister of Christ's gospel a sin. All these forces were opposed to it and before their challenge it must one day be wiped out.

But this will never be done by sitting down and thinking about it. Today in New Brunswick we are four laps behind every other province but Quebec and hard work would be needed before we could catch up. The trouble is that most men are looking for the soft and easy jobs and are not willing to get out into the trenches. He quoted the poem, whose closing lines were:

The world is saved by sacrifice
Who saves it bows his head and dies.
A witty anecdote emphasized the fact that we can take out of this movement only what we put in.

The referendum was asked by the Alliance for June 27th but the speaker emphasized the fact that the question was not settled even then, pointing out that the brewers were already asking to be allowed to increase their alcohol percentage 10 per cent.

The speaker referred to the local situation in carefully chosen words, stating that the ones who drafted the law never intended it to be enforced by any other than the local officers of the law. The inspectors were an outgrowth. He also pointed out that the law provided definite penalties for the ones who might intimidate, or seek to intimidate such an officer in the discharge of his duty.

In vigorous words, he pointed out that lax enforcement of the law inevitably led to its disregard, citing the instance of Chicago's 105 murders against London's 9, in the same year. In London 9 were hanged; in Chicago 4. The inference was easy. The alliance was out for law enforcement and needed the co-operation of all. He concluded by a strong appeal to join. A unanimous vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Wilson after which the meeting was closed by the national anthem.

SAVE THE ROADS.
The roads in the country districts will soon be free of snow and the temptation will be great to get into the auto and take a spin. But we direct the attention of all to an advertisement in another column which forbids use of the roads to heavy vehicular traffic until such time as the roads are declared open to traffic. Nothing cuts up the roads more than auto traffic when they are soft and the frost is coming out of the ground.

Chas. Stevens wrote asking for position as fireman at Electric Light Station. Placed on file.

The Clerk read a letter from the local government executive stating that no money was available at present.

Coun. Bisset moved that the communication lay on the table to be taken up later.—Carried.

The special auditor Mr. F. L. Belyea reported a progress of work of auditing the town books and enclosed a bill for $125.00 on account.

Coun. Belle-Isle criticized the progress of the work of the auditor. He stated that there had been about five weeks delay in commencing the work and time was wasted.

The report and account were referred to the Finance Committee.

Messrs. Hamilton & Collier submitted a tender for cement. This was placed on file.

The licensed truckmen petitioned the council to enforce the by-law relating to trucking and to see that all unlicensed teamsters were fined. This was referred to the Police Committee.

SUSTAINED ACTION OF JUDGE BARRY

In a Restigouche County Court Case Which Was Heard at Fredericton.

FREDERICTON, April 13.—This morning the Appeal Court heard argument in a county court case from Restigouche, that of the King vs. H. F. McLatchey, judge of the County Court, ex parte Peter Dechene. This was a case where the plaintiff, Dechene, had recovered a verdict of $72 on an action for debt in a magistrate's court, and in which Judge McLatchey reversed the decision on review. Application was then made to Mr. Justice Barry for a rule nisi to set aside the judgment of Judge McLatchey and the rule was made, returnable at court to-day. The court, unanimously, decided to confirm the rule granted by Judge Barry, being convicted that there would be a gross miscarriage of justice if the rule were set aside.

2.—Are we going to allow the dance halls to operate without license?
3.—What is the revenue from the Opera House?

Coun. Wallace thought that the whole matter should be taken up and discussed very carefully. These were very important matters, and should be carefully considered.

Coun. Belle-Isle spoke strongly for an increase license fee from the Opera House.

Coun. Belle-Isle moved that the four questions be referred to the Bylaw and Legislation Committee.—Carried.

Coun. Moore stated it was necessary to purchase some new hose. The chief of the fire department and himself had looked over the samples and recommended that 900 ft. of a certain grade at $1.85 per foot be purchased.

Coun. Belle-Isle moved that the Fire Protection Committee be authorized to purchase 900 feet of this special hose from the Dunlop Co. at $1.85 per foot.—Carried.

Coun. Patterson moved to revert to unfinished business to reconsider matter of the resolution passed on Feb. 28th and the Solicitors letter in reference to same.

The motion carried on the casting vote of the Mayor on the following day. Yes—Patterson, Wallace, Moores, Bisset, Nays—Duncan, Belle-Isle, Chamberlain, St. Onge.

His Worship stated that he was of the opinion that he would be justified in bringing that this motion discussed motion was passed Feb. 28 was non-existent.

Coun. Belle-Isle contended that the whole matter was out of order. If the Temperance Alliance instead of endeavoring to have this much talked of resolution rescinded would co-operate with the council and use their influence to get inspectors appointed, we would soon have a dry town. But they did not want the law strictly enforced. Were satisfied to catch the poor boot-legger while the ones higher up were never fined, thus bringing water to a local lawyer's mill. If the law was strictly enforced this lawyer would be out of a job.

Coun. Duncan agreed with Coun. Belle-Isle. The Temperance Alliance did not want the tree cut down at the stump but would like the monkey, content to climb the tree and cut off a branch at a time.

Coun. Duncan complained that the debris of a burned house in Ward III was a menace to adjacent property as it had caught on fire several times.

Coun. Wallace said that the building inspector had reported the matter and the owner had agreed to have it removed.

Coun. Belle-Isle said there was another burned building in the rear of Bradley & Walsh's which should be attended to.

Coun. Moore said that Mr. Joudry had again spoken to him about the flooding of the Commercial Block cellar.

Coun. St. Onge said that he would look into this matter at once. It was hoped to install this new sewer this year.

Coun. Belle-Isle submitted a sketch of Riverside Park. This showed proposed improvements.

The matter was referred to the Education and Improvement Committee to report as to the probable cost.

Coun. Wallace spoke of the efforts being made to regain possession of the I. N. R. lot. He felt that this would make a beautiful athletic grounds and park for the west end. He moved that the Education and Improvement Committee look into this matter also.—Carried.

Coun. Patterson bought up the matter of the resolution of Feb. 28th, defining the policemen's duties.

He also asked the following questions:—
1.—Have we any bylaws in reference to bill boards and Sunday opening of restaurants?

EXCITING GAME OF BASKET BALL

Campbellton High School Girls Meet Defeat on Friday Evening.

A game of Basket Ball was played in the Assembly Hall of the C. G. S. between Newcastle C. G. I. T. and Campbellton Basket Ball Team. The members of the visiting team were entertained at several homes throughout the town during their visit and after the game were banqueted in St. Andrew's Hall by the Campbellton Girls Basket Ball Team.

The game was fast and interesting, all through and the audience present enjoyed many exciting incidents which arose during the game.

The score was 18-25 in favor of the Newcastle C. G. I. T. team.

The audience was a large and appreciative one and took a keen interest in each and every play that was made. Both teams were matched and considering the short time each team has been practising, they are deserving of credit for the splendid manner in which they acquitted themselves in their second game.

Mr. L. A. Gilbert refereed the game in a most impartial manner to the delight and satisfaction of both players and spectators.

The line-up was as follows:—
Centre
Newcastle: Margaret McCurdy, Mary Gerrard, Jean Janine, Elizabeth Anslow, Katie Cassidy, Jean Harding.
