The price of ickets, $1.50 for the round trip, is very low, and that fact will do much to popularize the excursion. Besides this, the excursion tickets will admit all to a picnic at Houlton, at which there will be a first class programme of sports, including a bicycle contest in which 15 wheelmen are expected to compete; a base ball match between the Shamrocks and Houlton clube; a tug of war between Fredericton and Houlton teams, the winner to pull a Woodstock team. The Moncton Times, whose representative recently went over the Central Railway from Norton to Saigison's Creek, regards the Central as one of the most important railway enterprises in the Province. THE NEWS FROM MILVILLE, . (From our own Correspondent.) MILLVILLE, Aug. 14th. The last few days of rain and cloudy weather have put a stop to hay making. Fears are entertained that the continued wet weather will bring the rust on the potato crop which, in spite of the potato bug, is a fairly good one......Sickness still reigns over the land. A Miss McHatten of Campbell Settlement came here last week on he way home, very sick. She was unable each her home and is now being cared for by Mrs. Morgan, whose home is always open for those in trouble. The doctor has a busy time of it and is meeting good success... energetically than his grandfather did, for proof of which I refer all to our schools and left for his home in Boston by yesterday's train......Robert Lockard has again bid his friends farewell and returned too Michigan lumber woods.......Mr. Jarvis left on yester-day's train to visit friends in another country We have to again censure the young men of the place for once more letting one of the fair sex be taken captive by a young man from a distance. This is in reference to Mr. Wilfred Burden of Fredericton, who left the Celestial one day last week and passed through the village with a matched pair of greys to take to his home, as his bride, Miss Nettie Smith, daughter of T. W. Smith of Maplewood. Many of the invited friends were present to witness the marriage. After the ceremony the friends were called to tea, and there was found a well spread board laden with the good things prepared by Mrs. Smith, who is known for her ability to properly manage an affair like that. A very pleasant evening was spent by the young folks as well as the older ones. And here the fun did not end, for lo! an army at quite a late hour came marching through the gate, very much like an army of wild Indiane, so peculiar were they dressed. On reaching the house a volley of musketry was fired in the air, followed by whoops and terrible din of cow bells and tin pans. They merry crew were invited in and treated with the good things left of the feast. After partaking of the same they departed in a very orderly and gentlemenly manner. The married couple received many costly and handsome presents.The congregations here on the Sab-bath were very small on account of the Holiness Convention being in progress in Tem-perance Vale. Rev. S. Neiles preached to a fairly good congregation on Sabbath evening.
