A Warwick Boy Tells About England

Extracts from a letter received from Gunner C. F. Luckham, 64th Battery.
Segregation Camp,
June 11th, England.

DEAR MOTHER AND ALL :
As you see by the above heading, we are in England and I suppose before this, you have received my cablegram. I posted one letter to you, which I wrote on the boat, and this is the first chance I've had to write since, as we've been kept pretty busy, but that's the only way we'll win this war. Though I wrote every day while on the boat, my letter, doubtless would not be very interesting as there wasn't a heavy sea and all we could say of the water was that it was wet and looked deep. The Olympic on which we sailed is the second largest boat in the world and twin sister of the Titanic. I was very thankful when we set foot on terra firma once more for to say the least there is a certain amount of risk in crossing now.

Of necessity, the letters are censored or I could tell you something interesting.
But here goes for my first impressions of England. As we approached her shores they looked as much like banks of a huge scraper ditch as anything, for all we could see for a long time was her rugged coast lines, with here and there a large hill. When we landed we looked upon a city very much unlike four Canadian cities. There are no very high buildings here, most of them being one or two stories high with a few three or four. Our trip across England though gave me an entirely new opinion of her.

I have often heard the Englishman boast of "bally old England" and while I listened put it down for ego, but I've been here a few days and believe me she's a jolly fine old land.

Canada is a pretty country without a doubt, but she isn't in it with England for scenery. The land is of an extremely rolling nature, and the grass and foliage are of a much richer green due to course to the frequent showers.

This year looks like the best year they've had for a long time. Everyone is optimistic and especially just now for they had a fine victory the other day, which they have been planning for the past two years.

I have always wondered why the English people were so strong on early morning walks but I can appreciate their love for it now, for they have some of the prettiest walks you could imagine. The roads are simply grand, but are not adapted to Canadian traffic. They are all macadamized and so narrow, that only with difficulty can two vehicles pass.
Then too, the roads being all winding with trees on either side makes a very pretty sight. There are no wire fences but hedges neatly trimmed. No waste land even along the railroad. Flowers everywhere, look even in the slums of London. As we looked down into the back yards which were about 8 by 12ft enclosed by a brick wall, we noted the little one story houses and many flowers in bloom. Imagine living in a home like that with a back yard run of that size.

I would much prefer life in the country here to that of the English city.
Of course it is the large land owner who has made the country so picturesque and that at the labor and expense of his tenants. To say the least everywhere you look the surroundings are neat, trim and clean.

The people here are very economical.
Signs "eat less bread" meet your eye everywhere you turn and here at camp, we have been ordered to return all garbage to the kitchen separately, we draw just barely enough rations to keep us going and if we do not eat the meat, it is taken back, put in a pan by itself and boiled down for drippings. We get a slice of bread each day and of course there's none left over, but if for any reason there was, it would be taken back and we'd get it again. All bones are kept and used. But it's all necessary to the winning of this war, so we have to put up with it.

Although England, is far behind in some things yet she has it over Canada like a tent, as far as economy is concerned. Compared with her Canada has made no war sacrifices. We get so hungry here that we have to spend a good deal at the canteen (our supply store) to make up for the shortage. We are at this camp, just long enough to see if any contagious disease breaks out, and are then moved to a training camp.

Your loving son,
GUNNER C. F. LUCKHAM, 335071, Army P. O.
London, England.
c/o 64 Battery Draft.

While playing around an old spy apple tree, just cut down, Arthur Harrett, of Keith, put his hand into a hole in a branch where there had been a sparrow's nest, but he hastily withdrew it when he touched a snake. With the help of his brother Ernie, they killed the snake. It proved to be a copperhead measuring four feet one inch in length.
The snake had eaten the nest of sparrows and then coiled up in the tree to sleep.

LOOK TO THE FUTURE

Times may change and work become less plentiful for you with advancing years and you will have no such help anywhere as your nice little few hundred dollars saved in some sound Canadian Bank.

Begin now with only one dollar. Make a hobby of it. See how far behind you can leave trouble and hard times. Above all things do not look backward in your run to the harbor of comfort.

Presentation to Rev. F. G. Robinson

On Wednesday evening of last week the members and adherents of the Watford and Zion Methodist Churches met at the parsonage here to bid farewell to and show the appreciation which they had for their pastor for the last three years, viz., the Rev. F. G. Robinson.

After the large number present were called to order Mr. A. B. Steer, B. A., Principal of the Watford High School, was elected chairman. The meeting opened with the singing of the National Anthem. Short addresses were delivered by several members of both congregations expressing their hearty appreciation of Mr. Robinson as a pastor and amongst other things referred to the great work Mr. Robinson had done in having the church building in Watford remodeled according to his own plans and design, thereby making it a very handsome and commodious place of worship including the Sabbath School room in the basement, all at a very moderate cost, after others before him were unable to know what could be done without tearing down the old church. It was mentioned that Mr. Robinson was the right man in the right place and that the church here would be a suitable monument to his memory. Mrs. Lether-land gave a very appropriate recitation and several suitable hymns were rendered.
During the program Mr. Robinson was asked to come forward when a well filled purse was presented to him accompanied by the following address, viz :— Watford, Ont., June 27, 1917

DEAR MR. ROBINSON :— As a congregation and the various Corporate Boards of the Watford and Zion Methodist Churches we wish to express to you our kindest appreciation of your untiring efforts and highly efficient work as our Pastor, in advancing the highest and best interests of our churches and of the community at large. Your carefully, thoughtful ministration from Sabbath to Sabbath and your masterful work in the reconstruction of the Watford Church, transforming it into a beautiful church home, will ever live in our memories. Yours has been a highly constructive work throughout the past three years carrying with it the valued services of Mrs. Robinson and of your son and daughter whose voices lent a rich aid to all our services of praise. Each in your respective spheres has enriched our church life.
Treasured memories will ever live with us because of your faithful work and Zion Church with Watford joins in warmest gratitude with you all.

We wish you to accept this token of our good will and God speed as you enter upon a larger field of work. You go from us assured that your good words and work remain—such a work as we could not soon forget.

May God's richest blessings abide with you and yours.

Signed on behalf of the congregations :
T. F. FULLER, Treasurer
J. E. COLLIER, Sec. Finance Board
C. W. VAIL, Recording Steward
J. H. HUME, Treasurer.

Watford Church
Every person on leaving said goodbye to Mr. & Mrs. Robinson and their daughter Miss Robinson and wished them Godspeed in their new home and field of labor for the Master.

GUARD BABY'S HEALTH IN THE SUMMER

The summer months are the most dangerous to children. The complaints of that season, which are cholera infantum, colic, diarrhoea and dysentery, come on so quickly that often a little one is beyond aid before the mother realizes he is ill. The mother must be on guard to prevent these troubles, or if they do come on suddenly to cure them. No other medicine is of such aid to mother during hot weather as is Baby's Own Tablets. They regulate the stomach and bowels and are absolutely safe. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

KERWOOD

quite a number gathered at the parsonage to welcome the new pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Brown. An impromptu program was given and luncheon served.

A number of the ladies of the village motored to Watford and spent a pleasant afternoon at a meeting of the Daughters of the Empire.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewin and son, and the Misses Holmes, of Brussels; Mr. and Staples and Miss Eva Waddell, of Lon-

☞ The accurate weight of LANTIC SUGAR in original packages is a great help in preserving as it enables the work to be done without weighing the sugar. For strawberry preserves in light syrup use 4 quarts of berries to a 2-lb. carton of LANTIC SUGAR. For richer preserves increase the proportion of sugar according to taste.

leaving for their new charge at Morpeth.
After a short program an appreciative
