WONDERFUL RECOVERY OF HAIR

After 18, 25, and 36 years loss.

A few attestations, (selected from number less others, received during the last 40 years) to the virtues of ROWLAND'S MACASSAR OIL: the originals of which may be seen at the Proprietors.

To MESSRS ROWLAND AND SON, 20, HATTON GARDEN, LONDON. HURMANS HOTEL, COVENT GARDEN February 6, 1842

GENTLEMEN,—In announcing to you the following corroboration of the efficacy of your MACASSAR OIL, if by your making it public it will be of any service, I shall consider myself but performing a very small degree of the great obligation I feel I lie under to you, and shall be most happy during my stay in London to satisfy any Gentlemen who may be interested in the truth of the following.—In the year 1824 I went to India, and shortly after my arrival there my hair fell off in considerable quantities, so that I soon became entirely bald, in which state I remained until my arrival last year in America, and at Boston was advised by reading one of your Advertisements to make trial of your MACASSAR OIL, though I confess with but little hope of success. After the use of one bottle, I found my itching bald head covered with a scurf, and, continuing the use of the Oil, much to my gratification, I have now the pleasure to inform you, without exaggeration or vanity, that I can boast of as fine a head of hair as any one need to have.

I am, Gentlemen, Your grateful Servant, A. MACKENZIE

GENTLEMEN,—I take the liberty of addressing my thanks to you for the great benefit I have received from your truly valuable MACASSAR OIL. Having had the misfortune to lose my hair at the age of five and twenty, in consequence of a fever, I was lately induced, at the instance of a friend, to make trial of your excellent specific, and can only say that the effects were most surprising, for in a very short space of time, my head, which was before entirely bald, was soon covered with thick and strong hair. I am now fifty years of age, and could scarcely have expected, that after having worn a wig for five and twenty years of my life, I should now be enabled to throw it entirely aside. I think it but justice to yourselves and the public, to add my testimony to the virtues of your truly inestimable Oil, and to have my full permission to make this letter public, and to send any one to see for proof of the merits of this invaluable discovery.

I am, Gentlemen, Your obliged and obedient Servant, W. C. FRIDEAUX. Liverpool, March 21, 1842.

Extract of a Letter directed to Mr. Oldroyd, Merchant of London, from a friend at Naples, dated May 6, 1823.

I must turn your attention to the following:—Captain Kraschir of the 4th Regiment of Foot, in the service of His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of Austria, aged 44 years, has been bald ever since the age of 18. He was recommended to use "Rowland's Macassar Oil," by a Gentleman who had already experienced its good effects, and he bought some of me of the first quantity I received from England, and persevered in applying it.—In less than two months his hair began to grow on the bald parts, and is now very thick. The Captain is highly pleased with the result, and I assure you, the demand for this article is very great, and must beg you to send me a fresh supply without loss of time.

GENTLEMEN.—Having derived essential benefit from the use of your MACASSAR OIL, I am induced to send you the particulars, which you are at liberty to make known as you may think proper. Rather more than twelve months since I made trial of your Oil, though I confess with but little faith, as I had been bald eighteen years. It was near three months before any effect was perceptible, but when a slight down appeared; at the expiration of five months hair had grown on the bald part, and in a month longer, I then had the whole of my head regularly shaved once a week for a considerable period, constantly using the Oil, night and morning; the result is, that I have this day discarded my wig, my hair being quite restored, and as strong as great in quantity as when I was twenty years of age.

I am, Gentlemen, Your obedient servant, C. P. DRIFFIELD. 32, Broad Street, Brighton, April 19, 1832.
