holding a very young child in the customary manner on her back by means of a blanket. In sliding down in the erect posture, her beels slipped, and she tell backwards, the hild's head coming in violent contact with the frozen ground, was fatally injured, and it lived but a few minutes.

The miners of the Saskatchewan Coal Mining Company, who had been out on stri e for near three weeks, had an interview with Mr. Freeman, who on behalf of the Directors in Winnipeg arrived here the end of last week. The men have returned to work, on the new terms, viz., nmety cents a ton-for mining, and the appointment of a new manager. The latter is Mr. J. D. Foneman, who will reside at the mines, and conduct the mining operations, During the strike the local mines along the river bank had quite a "boom," and had all they could do to supply the town. The price of good coal is $4 delivered. One mine has sold one hundred thus at $1 50 at the mine, the purchaser to do the freighting.
