

in the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin. Jerome Lalemant's prefatory epistle to the Provincial in France is dated "De Quebec le 30. Aouft 1664." At the Barlow sale in 1890, two copies were sold, nos. 1313 and 1314 of the catalogue—the former fetching $60, and the latter only $10. It is singular that the second copy, which was in the old vellum binding, should have sold for only one-sixth as much as the other copy, which was in a modern dress by Hayday. The volume has rarely appeared for sale, and the highest Barlow price may be considered moderate. In fact, as far as the Relations are concerned, the Barlow prices can seldom be taken as a criterion of value. A bibliophile recently wrote to us that, had he been present at that sale, his collection of these annuals would have been greatly added to, or the prices would have been much larger.
