

	PAGE
LI. A voyage to the East Indies by the Cape of Buona Speranza, written by R. Hakluyt	272
LII. Certaine remembrances of an intended iourney to Brassil. 1583	290
LIII. The letters patents granted by Her Majestie for a trade to Barbarie. 1585.	294
LIV. The Ambassage of Henry Roberts to the Emperour of Marocco. 1585	299
LV. A letter from Muly Hamet to the Earl of Leicester	303
LVI. The Queenes letters to the Emperour of Marocco	304
LVII. A patent to certaine merchants of Exeter for a trade to the river of Senega and Gambra in Guinea, 1588.	306
LVIII. A voyage to Benin, 1588. Written by James Welsh	312
LIX. The voiage of John Newton and John Bird to Benin. 1588	318
LX. The second voyage of John Newton and John Bird to Benin. 1590	321
LXI. An advertisement sent to Philip II. king of Spaine from Angola by Baltazar Almeida de Sousa. 1591	326
LXII. Confirmatio treugarum inter Eduardum quartum et Joannem secundum. 1482.	328
LXIII. The ambassage which John II. king of Portugall, sent to Edward IV.	329
LXIV. A relation sent by Melchior Petoney to Nigil de Moura, 1591.	330
LXV. The Voyage of Richard Rainolds and Thomas Dassel to Guinea.	331
LXVI. A briefe relation concerning the cities of Tombuto and Gago.	339
LXVII. Another relation concerning the same.	340
LXVIII. A briefe extract of a patent granted to Thomas Gregory, of Tanton.	341
LXIX. The maner of the taking of two Spanish ships by Thomas White, 1592.	342
LXX. A true report of the honourable service at sea performed by Sir John Burrough, prepared by Sir Walter Raleigh.	344
LXXI. The firing and sinking of the stout and warrlike Carack called Las Cinque Llagas, by Nicholas Downton.	354