

SPECIAL DIAMOND JUBILEE CLUB OFFERS.

We want each reader to send us one of the clubs below.

If each reader accomplished this, and we are sure it is possible to almost everyone—then our publications would have the largest circulation of any in the Dominion, and we would make a number of improvements without delay—improvements that each reader would immediately recognize and appreciate.

Four Subscriptions to the 'Northern Messenger,' separately addressed, worth $1.60, for only	$1.00,	three of whom must be new subscribers.
One Subscription each to the 'Northern Messenger' and 'Daily Witness,' .....	worth $3.40, for only	$3.10
" " " " " " " " 'Weekly' .....	" $1.40	" $1.20
" " " " " " " " 'World Wide,' .....	" $1.90	" $1.75
" " " " 'World Wide,' 'Weekly Witness' and 'Northern Messenger,' .....	" $2.90	" $2.20

SAMPLES FREE—Agents and Club Raisers will get further information and samples on application.

NOTE.—These rates will be subject to our usual postal regulations, as follows:—POSTAGE INCLUDED for Canada (Montreal and suburbs excepted), Newfoundland, Great Britain, Gibraltar, Malta, New Zealand, Transvaal, Barbadoes, Jamaica, Trinidad, Bahama Islands, Bermuda, British Honduras, Ceylon, Gambia, Sarawak, Zanzibar, Hongkong, Cyprus; also to the United States, Hawaiian Islands and Philippine Islands. POSTAGE EXTRA to all countries not named in the foregoing list, as follows: 'Daily Witness,' $3.50 extra; 'Weekly Witness,' $1 extra; 'Northern Messenger,' $50 extra; 'World Wide,' subscription price, including postage to foreign countries, only $1.50.

Note—Subscribers getting up clubs are entitled to charge full subscription rates from new subscribers and to retain the difference between these and the above club rate to cover their expenses.

Note—One's own subscription does not count in this offer because it does not require canvassing.

Note—Those working for other premiums will not benefit by these offers.

Note—To stimulate further effort, and as some will find it easy to get more than three or four subscribers, we will in addition to the foregoing remarkable offers, commencing November 15th, 1905, and until further notice, award each day to the subscriber sending us in the largest amount of subscription money for our various publications on that day,

OUR RED LETTER COLORED PLATE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE.

These Bibles would appear to be good value at four dollars each

If there should happen to be a tie for the largest amount in any given day the premium will be awarded to the one farthest away, because his remittance will have been mailed earlier than the other.

NOTE.—Sunday-School Clubs for the 'Messenger' will not count under this offer because they are not secured individually; because usually no one in particular is properly entitled to the premium; and because they are generally large, and to include them would only discourage those working up small individual lists. Neither will remittances count from news agents, from publishers, or from any one who is not a subscriber to one of our publications.

Those who prefer, instead of working on the basis of the above Club offers, may take subscriptions for any of our publications at the full rates, and we will allow a commission of twenty-five percent (one quarter) on renewal subscriptions and fifty percent (one half) on new subscriptions. But these terms are only available for those sending Five dollars or more at a time.

NOTE.—New subscribers are people who have not been readers of our publications, or who have not for at least two years lived in homes where they have been taken.

The Thrifty Housewife.

The thrifty housewife is not the poor woman who spends her life indoors trying with might and main to make many dollars' worth of work and worry to save a few cents. She is quite another variety of economist. She goes out and around, mingles with people who are apt to have ideas newer and fresher than her own. She is not too proud to adopt the theories of others if they are better than her own, and she seeks advice and peeps at the point of view of other women even if she does not entirely accept them. She considers health, physical, mental, and moral, the only thing in the world worth worrying about, and refuses to lose sleep or appetite over trifles. She keeps her servants as long as she can, but if they go she does not wear sackcloth and ashes. Restaurants, hotels, charwomen, and patience she considers better substitutes for servants than the mistress wearing out her clothes, nerves and youth cooking meals for a hungry household. The truly thrifty woman is a creature endowed with logic and common-sense whose price is far above rubies. She knows how to take care of herself so well she seldom needs to be taken care of. She does not work herself to death for ten years and then remain a helpless invalid for twenty. She keeps young, and her home is as attractive to her husband on his silver wedding day as it was when he and his bride entered it together for the first time.—New York 'Commercial Advertiser.'

Oilcloths should be wet as seldom as possible, and will keep clean and bright for a long time if rubbed with a flannel cloth and a little linseed oil. When necessary to wash, use a soft cloth and tepid water to which milk has been added. A coat of coach varnish applied every spring will make them look like new, and last much longer. They should be washed before varnishing, and not stepped on till dry.

*Who will be the successful subscriber next week?
for conditions see "Special Diamond Jubilee Offers" above.*

Dear Sirs,—I received your beautiful red letter Bible, for which I am truly thankful. I think the 4,500 questions and answers at the back adds very much to its value. I think they are a great help to the general reader. I am glad to see you are receiving so many kind words in praise of the 'Witness.' It is worthy of them all. Allow me to heartily endorse all the good things that have been said. Wishing you the very best success, I am, respectfully yours,

HENRY WALKER.
