

All matters of business presented at the general sessions of the Congress, shall be referred to the General Executive Committee, and must receive the endorsement of the Committee before they can be entertained by the President of the Congress.

The management of the World's Congress Auxiliary of the Columbian Exposition have offered suitable accommodations in the Memorial Art Palace, on the lake front, in Chicago, for the sessions of the World's Columbian Dental Congress, August 14, 1893.

INVITATION.

The duties of the Committee on Invitation shall be to invite such scientific persons residing in the United States and foreign countries who are not members of the profession, but who, by their recognized attainments in special departments of science, would add interest to the meeting. They shall also have the authority to invite such dentists of high standing and reputation in foreign countries as may be agreed upon by a majority of the Committee, and a card from the Chairman of said Committee to the Chairman of the Committee on Registration shall be deemed evidence of the reputability of the holder thereof, to entitle him to membership in the Congress, and they shall also furnish the Committee on Membership with a list of the names and residences of those invited.

MEMBERSHIP.

The duties of the Committee on Membership shall be to pass upon all applications for membership which may be referred to it by the Committee on Registration or the Treasurer.

The membership shall consist of legally qualified and reputable dentists (as defined in the Code of Ethics of the American and Southern Dental Associations) residing in the United States, and such other scientific persons as may be invited by the Committee on Invitation; each and every member to be entitled to one copy of the Transactions.

All dentists residing in foreign countries who desire to acquire membership in the Congress, will file their application with the Honorary President or Vice-Presidents of their respective countries, who are empowered to pass upon their eligibility.
