

Report on Temperance.

Rev. Henry Crawford read the report of the committee on Temperance. The report was received and adopted, and ordered to be published. The committee was re-appointed, and it was agreed that the committee in future confine their attention to the question of Intoxicating Liquors.

Report of Audt'g Com.

The report of the Auditing committee was then submitted and read, as follows:—

The Auditing committee report that they have carefully examined the accounts submitted to them by the general Treasurer of the church,—they have gone over each account separately,—they have compared every acknowledgment of monies published monthly in the Record as received, with the credits given in the accounts, and have found them correct,—and they have also examined the vouchers or receipts for the disbursements, and found them correct.
