

A LITTLE TALK ABOUT JESUS. (SEE SECOND PAGE.)

"GOD'S LITTLE ERRAND GIRL."

Little Hester loved Jesus, and tried to do his will. One day she and her mother had been talking together about their heavenly Father, and Hester said: "Why, mother, God is sending us on errands all the time! O, it is so nice to think that I am God's little errand-girl!" There are many things that an errand-girl or errand-boy can do which are very important.

To do errands properly one must be attentive, and learn just what needs to be done; must be prompt, and go at once to do the errands, and be sure to do the errands right.
