

PART THE PREACHER—or Popular and Practical Exposition of his Discourses and Speeches as recorded in the Acts of the Apostles. By John Eadie, D.D. L.L.D., Professor of Biblical Literature to the United Presbyterian Church. New York:—R. Carter & Bros. Sold by D. McLellan, Hamilton.

Dr. Eadie is well known as an accomplished scholar and a popular preacher and writer. The present volume will sustain the fame which he has earned by his previous productions. It does not pretend to be either a Life of Paul, or a commentary on the Acts of the Apostles, but a popular and practical exposition of the various discourses and addresses of the Apostle. The design of the writer is well carried out, and the volume may be regarded as a most valuable addition to our Biblical literature.

SACRED RHETORIC—"ELOCUTIONIST," BY MR. PHILLIP OF HAMILTON. — In addition to a class taught in the month of December by the Rev. Wm. Hamilton, from the States, the students in Knox College have a weekly Rhetorical exercise under the superintendence of the Professors. Besides the prelections of Blair, and the admittal suggestions of an essay on Sacred Rhetoric by Adolphe Monod, of Paris, the 'Elocutionist,' by Mr. Phillips, formerly of Montreal, now of Hamilton, Canada West, has been advantageously used in the way of specimens and practical hints. The volume deserves to be better known than perhaps it is. It is based on the well known work of Sheridan Knowles, but large additions have been made to it from the writings of Chalmers, Ahson, Thomson, (Dr. Andrew, of Edinburgh,) Macaulay and others; and many useful directions are interspersed on reading and oratory in general. The specimens ancient and modern, prose and verse, sacred and secular, seem well arranged, and the work as a whole is creditable to the author who has long been known, both in Lower and Upper Canada, as an able and successful instructor of youth.

SABBATH SCHOOL LESSONS—The Notes for teachers, and schemes of lessons published at Edinburgh, and for sale by D McLellan, Hamilton, are admirably adopted for Sabbath Schools. The scheme of lessons cost only 45 cents per 100, and the teachers' notes 20 cents each.

EDUCATIONAL REPORT—We have received a copy of the Educational Report for 1858, which we shall notice more fully in another number. We are glad to notice that notwithstanding the general depression of the Province, the cause of Education has been advancing.

REMOVAL OF OFFICE.

The General Office of the Church has been removed to Knox College. Letters and moneys may be left at Mr. Bain's, King Street East, immediately under the former office.
