

"Waterbury Christian."

Bro. Luttenberger told a story on himself, and drew such a splendid moral from it that we wish to preserve it in the Messenger. He said that when he first landed in this country, at Castle Garden, a very affable gentleman—as he supposed—met him and showed him what appeared to be a very fine watch and proposed to exchange. Bro. L. examined the watch, as he thought, carefully, and decided to exchange. It was not long before he found he had been swindled, and, instead of the solid gold watch he had given the other man, he had on his hands nothing but a "washed" Waterbury! He said he soon found out something very peculiar about that watch, and that was—as long as he kept winding it the watch would run, but it would soon cease operations when he quit winding! "Now," said Bro. L., "I have found that there are a good many Christians just like my Waterbury watch. As long as the preacher keeps running after them, and winding them up, so to speak, and coaxing them to come to church, and all the members rush up and speak to them and pat them on the shoulder, why, they work pretty well. But just as soon as the preacher or the older members of the church quit running after them, they feel slighted and neglected and drop out of the work—in other words, they will not 'run!' I have learned since that, there may be some good Waterbury watches, some that have been improved and you don't have to wind up so often nor so long, but I had rather have a watch that I can rely upon, even if it does cost more money. So I have learned that there are some good Christians who do have to be coaxed to come to church and do their duty to the Lord, but I had rather see men and women do the work Christ wants them to do out of very love for Him who loved them and gave His life for them. They are the kind of people who make a church prosperous."—Messenger, Denver, Colorado.

THE PERFECT TEA MONSOON TEA

THE FINEST TEA IN THE WORLD. FROM THE TEA PLANT TO THE TEA CUP IN ITS NATIVE PURITY.

"Monsoon" Tea is packed under the supervision of the Tea growers, and is advertised and sold by them as a sample of the best qualities of Indian and Ceylon Tea. For that reason they see that none but the very fresh leaves go into Monsoon packages. That is why "Monsoon," the perfect Tea, can be sold at the same price as inferior tea. It is put up in sealed caddies of 1/4 lb., 1 lb. and 5 lbs., and sold in three flavours at 50c., 75c. and 90c. If your grocer does not keep it, tell him to write to STEEL, HAYTER & CO., 22 and 23 Front St. East, Toronto.
