

Sparkles.

WHY should not ducks be allowed on doctor's premises? Because they make such personal remarks.

REV. J. G. STEARNS writes: "I consider Perry Davis' Pain-Killer the best remedy I ever knew for dyspepsia."

A CLERGYMAN asks: Can a man be a Christian and at the same time a successful business man? He can if he advertises largely.

FOR the thousand and one purposes for which writing is required Esterbrook's Steel Pens will be found admirably adapted.

"MADAME," said a gentleman to a lady, "pardon me, but your hair is coming down." "And yours, sir," replied the lady indignantly, "is coming out."

A CURE FOR DRUNKENNESS.—Opium, morphine, chloral, tobacco and kindred habits. The medicine may be given in tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it, if so desired. Send 6c in stamps for book and testimonial from those who have been cured. Address M. V. Lubon, 47 Wellington Street East, Toronto, Ont.

IN Duruy's "History of France," the writer says: The first King of France was Pharamond, an imaginary being, who never existed. He was succeeded by his son.

Figures Cannot Lie.

This has been said by a great many, and believed to be truth. But we are sometimes a little sceptical when distance of some remote planet is given, but never in the least doubt when JOLLIFFE & CO., of 467-471 Queen Street, West, say they have the largest and best stock of Furniture and Carpets in the city.

"MY dear fellow, you ought to go to Europe. You don't know how much change and rest the trip affords." "Oh, yes I do. I know that the hotel porters get the change and the landlords the rest."

SURE TO SATISFY.—There are many remedies for coughs and colds, but there are few that prove so satisfactory as Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, which is a pleasant and reliable cure for all throat and lung troubles, including bronchitis, asthma, croup, whooping cough and the pulmonary complaints of young or old.

"HAVE you the carte du jour?" said the affected miss to the hotel waiter. "A carte at the dure, is it?" he said. "Faith, Oi've not, mum. It's a waither, an' not a rag man, Oi belave Oi am, mum." And then she complained of his insolence and stupidity.

MANY persons in Pittston are using Ely's Cream Balm, a Catarrh remedy, with most satisfactory results. A lady is recovering the sense of smell which she had not enjoyed for fifteen years. She had given up her case as incurable. Mr. Barber has used it in his family, and recommends it very highly. A Tunkhannock lawyer, known to many of our readers, testifies that he was cured of partial deafness.—Pittston, Pa., Gazette.

A CORRESPONDENT who has read with interest the advice given from time to time that the clergy should read new books, and so keep up with the age, wants to know how the clergy can get the books. He says he can cook the hare if he can catch it.

Money Makers.

don't let golden opportunities pass unimproved; there are times in the lives of men when more money can be made rapidly and easily, than otherwise can be earned by years of labour. Write Hall & Co., Portland, Maine, who will send you, free, full particulars about work that you can do, and live at home, wherever you are located, at a profit of at least from $5 to $25 daily. Some have made over $50 in a single day. All is new. You are started free. Capital is not required. Either sex; all ages.

ONE of the hardest sort of people was asked to subscribe to some worthy object. "I can't," he replied; "I must be just before I am generous." "Well," said the one who had made the request, "let me know just before you are generous, and I'll try you again."

FOR contemplation he, and valour formed. For softness she, and sweet attractive grace.

John Milton in his "Paradise Lost" thus distinguishes woman from man. Diseases fall to her lot that do not to man's, peculiar to her soft and more refined nature. A remedy adapted to the cure of her peculiar diseases is found in Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favourite Prescription," for women. Thousands who have used it attest its great worth.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

In Nervous Headache, Fever and Impotence.

Dr. A. S. KIRKPATRICK, Van Wert, Ohio: "I have used it with the most brilliant success in chronic nervous headaches, hectic fever with profuse night sweats, impotence, nervousness, &c."
