

In politics Lord Bute belonged to the Tory school, of which however he was not a very active supporter. He is said to have been in favor of Home Rule for Scotland but opposed to it for Ireland. This was one of the Marquis's idiosyncrasies of character; and these I do not propose to discuss, believing that people should hear de mortuis nil nisi bonum.

M.

