

SWARTHMORE COLLEGE NOTES.

During last month a great deal of interest has been shown in the track athletics. On the fourteenth the annual contest for championship between the four classes was held; the Seniors won the first place, the Juniors the second. In the Inter-State contest held at Pittsburg on the twenty-first Swarthmore gained the second place.

Many of the students attended the opening session of the Yearly Meeting in Philadelphia and several of the meetings during the week.

The Young Friends' Association held its final meeting for the year on the fifteenth. A very interesting review of Isaac Sharpless's book, "Quaker Experiment in Government," was read by one of the College students, and Hannah Clothier read a beautiful paper on "Prayer".
