Under the Market

One of the most demoralizing influences upon the local twine trade issues from the dealers who, when prices advance, do not keep pace with the market, says Farm Implement News of Chicago. This policy is that the market was to be supported by the same of the property of the issues from the dealers who, when

If we look back over the history of the twine trade we find many year in which prices declined from the opening rate and only a few in which they advanced.
