PARISH NOTES.

The Rector sails for England on June 27th for a short vacation of three months. We shall all be glad to hear of his safe arrival there, and still more glad of his safe return. As it is upwards of ten years since the Rector visited the Old Country, the visit will be one of very great interest and in some sort will be of the nature of a family reunion. Miss Cayley accompanies the Rector and we assure them of our constant thoughts and prayers. During his absence Dr. Hare will be glad to receive all communicants concerning church business.

On June 11, St. Barnabas' Day, Holy Communion at 10.30 a.m.

Our congregation is gradually dispersing for the summer resorts. Captain Walker and his family have left for Cobourg; Mr. Clubb and his family for the Island and others are already on the wing. We can only urge those who still remain in the city to be more regular in their attendance at church. They are always missed and it is dreary work preaching to empty pews.

Several members also of the choir have left or are about to leave the city for the summer. Will not those who are still in the city endeavour to attend at both morning and evening services? They have really no more right to absent themselves than the clergy—if absent their duties are unperformed. Men's voices, tenor and bass, are much needed—who will volunteer?

During the past month we have had kind assistance from the Rev. Dean Rigby and the Rev. Dr. T. Owen.

The Rev. Provost Macklem will preach on Sunday evening, June 21st.

The Ascension Day Children's Flower Service was hardly a success. Probably 4.30 p.m. was rather too early an hour. Those who did come had an interesting address from the Rector, and the very beautiful flowers they brought were much appreciated by our aged friends at the Church Home.

The Glee Club, after a short but most useful term, has now adjourned until after the summer recess, when an enlarged membership is confidently anticipated.

We had only time before going to press last month to mention the election of Mr. R. A. Baines as Churchwarden and Mr. C. D. Heath as Vestry Clerk. We now heartily congratulate both the Parish and the gentlemen concerned. We much regret the removal of Captain Wyatt from the Parish which necessitated his resignation of the latter office.

ST. AGATHA'S GUILD.

A really successful entertainment has been given under the auspices of the above Guild and under the management of Miss Cayley and Miss Dye. The schoolroom was literally packed and it was found impossible to provide seats for all. The entertainment proper was preceded by a short musical selection admirably rendered by Miss Gosling, Miss Street, Miss Maud Cowan, Mr. Murdock. As ever, Miss Cowan's contributions were enthusiastically encored and Mr. Murdock's rendering of his songs only made us regret that the Sunday evening congregation have not more frequent opportunities of listening to his voice. The Operetta reflected the highest praise on all concerned. The children went through their several parts "as to the manner born," and showed that they had been carefully trained and had themselves acquired the genius of taking pains. The dances were most graceful and artistic and, to St. George's Church audiences, novel. Where all did well it seems invidious to distinguish, but we are bound to mention the very natural acting of Hazel Blaylock as "M-chief."

The set of Lancers danced in costume proved a very attractive item of the programme. The participants were Misses Gertrude Cable, Nellie Lowe, Beatrice How, Alice Buckle, Ella Winsor, C. Domelle, Madge Mollington and Meta Dickey.
