CHAS. GLUTNE'S

Perfect Spinal Truss. Inventor and Manufacturer of Appliances for the Relief and Cure of all DEFORMITIES of the Human Frame.

G. Morgan, M.D., writes: "Having known Mr. Chas. GLUTNE for several years, and used his instruments, I have no hesitation in saying that his work is the superior in every respect to any of the instruments of the kind made in New York. Philadelphia, or elsewhere. He is thoroughly honest and reliable, and will do what he says."

and forces of it and adaptability for the purpose designed his superior in America is hard to find. As an instrument maker and fitter I can most cordially recommend him to any undertaker in need of his services. He is thoroughly honest and reliable, and will do what he says.

A Great Medical Work on Manhood.

Exhausted Vitality, Nervous and Physical Debility, Premature Decline in man, Errors of Youth, and the untold miseries resulting from indigestion or excess. A book for every man, young, middle-aged and old. It contains 125 prescriptions for all acute and chronic diseases, each one of which is invaluable. Suggested by the author, whose experience for 25 years is such as probably never before fell to the lot of any physician. 300 pages, bound in beautiful French marbled, embossed covers, full gilt, guaranteed to be the best work in every sense than any other work sold in this country for $2.50, or the money will be refunded in every instance. Price only $1.00 by mail, postpaid. Illustrative sample free to anybody. Send now. Gold medal awarded the author by the National Medical Association, to the President of which, the Hon. F. A. Bland, and associate officers of the Board, the reader is respectfully referred.

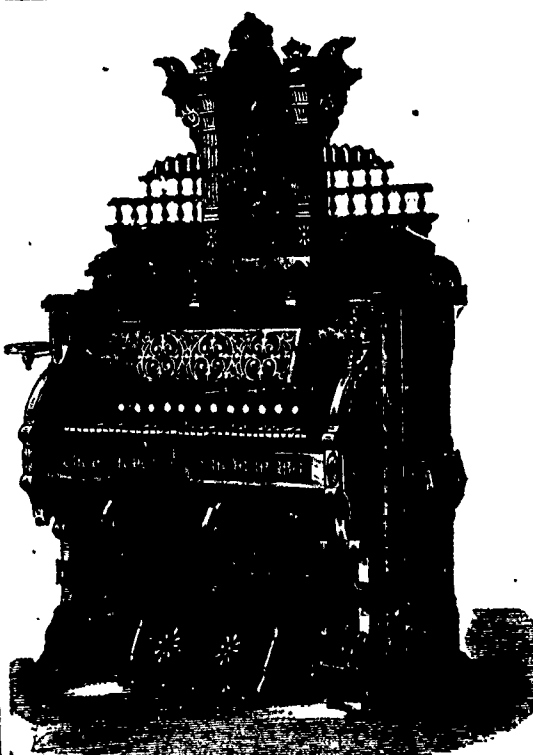

The Science of Life should be read by the young for instruction, and by the afflicted for relief. It will benefit all.—London Lancet.

There is no member of society to whom the Science of Life will not be useful, whether youth, parent, student, instructor or clergyman.—Argosy.

Address the Peabody Medical Institute, or Dr. W. R. Parker, No. 4 Bulfinch Street, Boston, Mass., who may be consulted on all diseases requiring skill, and experience. Chronic and obstinate diseases, that have baffled the skill of all other physicians, a specialty. Such treated successfully without an instance of failure. Mention this paper.
