

THE LADY'S BOOK.

PUBLISHED BY L. A. GODEY & CO.

No. 3, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia, Pa.

Each number of this periodical contains 60 pages of extra royal octavo letter press, printed with clear, new and beautiful type, (arranged after the manner of the London LA BELLE ASSEMBLEE,) on paper of the finest texture and whitest colour. It is embellished with splendored engravings on Copper and steel, executed by Artists of the highest skill and distinction, and embracing every variety of subject. Among these are Illustrations of Popular Legends, Romantic Incidents, Attractive Scenery, and portraits of Illustrious Females. The number commencing each quarter contains a picture of the existing Philadelphia Fashions—designed, drawn, and, and engraved expressly for this work, by competent persons especially engaged for that purpose. The embellishments of this character which have appeared in former numbers, are confessedly superior to any which have been furnished in any other similar American publication, and from the arrangements which have been made their is every reason to believe they will be improved in the coming volumes. In addition to the Embellishments just referred to, every Number contains at least six Engravings on wood, representing Foreign and Native Scenes, Curious and interesting subjects, Natural History, Humorous Incidents, Ornamental Productions, Embroidery, and other needle work, Riding, Dancing, &c. besides one or more peices of the most popular Music, arranged for the Piano or Guitar.

Every six numbers of the work form an elegant volume suitable for binding, and with these are furnished gratuitously a superbly engraved Title Page and a general Index of Contents.
