

ASLANDER REFUTED.

PROTESTANT EX-UNITED STATES MINISTER TO ECUADOR REBUKES REV. Mr. JOHNSTON.

Writing to the Boston PILOT, Hon. Rowland B. Mahony, Ex-United States Minister to Ecuador and a Protestant, says: "My attention has been called to the utterance of the Rev. Hugh Johnston, pastor of the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church of Washington D. C., to the effect that the people of Ecuador are sunk in immorality. A libel more outrageous can hardly be imagined. The Ecuadorians are a gentle, virtuous and noble people.

With mountain passes, deep ravines, fathomless abysses and wind-swept paromas offering every facility for successful crime, the traveller can proceed on his way in absolute security, and he will receive nothing but child-like and simple hospitality from this generous and pastoral race. It would be well for the Rev. Hugh Johnston were he sure that at the dreadful latter day his absolutely unjustifiable slander of the Ecuadorians will not rise up to confront him, the more condemnatory because it comes from one who should exemplify the truth.

"He has rashly done what Edmund Burke declined to do—frame an indictment against a whole people."

The "Anglo-Saxon Crusade."

United States History Mutilated in the Effort to Hide Irish Valor on Union Battlefields.

The attention of the Irish World has been called to the serious charge made against one of the histories very generally used in our public schools. The history referred to is Barnes' History of the United States, formerly published by A. S. Barnes & Co., but now published by the American Book Company. For over twenty-five years the history contained a reference to the heroism of Meagher's Irish Brigade in the battle of Fredericksburg, together with the historic tribute published in the London Times, written by its war correspondent, who witnessed the brigade's six charges into the leaden storm of death hurled from the rebel guns on Mary's Heights. In the new edition of this book recently issued by the American Book Company it is charged that no change or revision has been made except in the description of the battle of Fredericksburg, where everything Irish has been stricken out. The words "Meagher's Irish Brigade" no longer appear, and the tribute of the Times' correspondent has been mutilated, excluding words and phrases which tell of the nationality of the men of the brigade. This is a phase of the "Anglo-Saxon" programme, to which we have been more or less accustomed, but the wanton bigotry of the example noted is difficult to characterize. Even indignation has a limit—IRISH WORLD.

THE QUEEN BEHIND THE FINGER

The following extract from an article written by Miss Lillian Bell for the "Ladies' Home Journal" is pregnant with meaning as to the law-abiding habits of the people in England. Miss Bell writes:—"I have seen the Houses of Parliament and the Tower and Westminster Abbey, and the World's Fair, but the most impressive sight I ever beheld is the upraised hand of a London policeman. I never heard one of them speak except when spoken to. But let one little blue-coated man raise his forefinger, and every vehicle on wheels stops, and stops instantly; stops in obedience to law and order; stops without swearing or gesticulating or abuse; stops with no underhand trying to drive out of line and get by on the other side; just stops, that is the end of it. And why? Because the Queen of England is behind that raised finger. Why, a London policeman has more power than our President. Even the Queen's coachmen obey that forefinger. Understanding how to obey, that is what makes liberty.

"I am the most flamboyant of Americans, the most hopelessly addicted to my own country, but I must admit that I had my first real taste of liberty in England. I will tell you why. In America nobody obeys anybody. We make our laws and then most industriously set about studying out a plan by which we may evade them. America is suffering, as all Republics must of necessity suffer, from liberty in the hands of the multitude. The multitude is ignorant, and liberty in the hands of the ignorant is always license."

A New Boarding-House For Small Boys.

The Sisters of Charity of St. Boniface, yielding to repeated requests from various quarters, have determined to undertake the management of a boarding-house for boys between the ages of six and twelve. Special halls will be set apart for them, where, under the care and supervision of the Grey Nuns, they will be prepared for their First Communion, while attending either the Preparatory Department of St. Boniface College or the classes of Provencher Academy. This establishment will be known as "Le Jardin de l'Enfance" (Kindergarten).

The results already attained in similar institutions of the Order give every reason to hope that this arrangement will fill a long felt want.

Board and lodging will cost six dollars a month. For the boys who attend Provencher Academy there will be an additional charge of fifty cents a month. Bedding, mending and washing will be extra. The Sisters are willing to attend to these extras on terms to be arranged with them. The boys who attend the Preparatory Department of St. Boniface College will have to pay the tuition fees of the College.

Applications should be made to THE SISTER SUPERIOR, GREY NUNS' MOTHER HOUSE, ST. BONIFACE.

NO DODGING HIS ARROW.

No matter how much of a business woman a woman may be, when the little love-god makes up his mind to shoot, there is no protection against his arrow. Yet many a young woman whose affections are already engaged, hesitates to assume the obligations of wifehood and motherhood, because she feels unfitted for them by some physical weakness or disease.

The special ailments to which the feminine organism is liable, not only unfit a woman for happy wifehood and motherhood, but incapacitate her for any sphere of action. No woman can discharge the daily duties of any position with comfort or satisfaction who is constantly weighed down by headaches, backaches and dragging, weakening drains.

Troubles of this nature are not by any means a necessity of womanhood. They are positively and completely cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It imparts genuine health and strength to the womanly organs. It was devised for this one purpose by an eminent specialist in this particular field of practice.

Over 30 years ago Dr. R. V. Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., saw the need of some simple, effective, and certain cure for so called "female complaint." He was then, as now, a specialist in the diseases of women, and the result of his study and experiments was the marvelously effective remedy known all over the civilized world as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures where doctors have failed. It cures where medicines have been useless. It cures in a perfectly natural way by purifying and strengthening the organs involved. Its cure is permanent. It leaves the whole body in better condition than it ever was. It cures without the local examinations and treatment so abhorrent to every modest woman.

"I suffered for two years with female weakness," writes Mrs. Effie Gilmore, of 1036 So. 18th St., Omaha, Neb. "I had bearing down sensations, headaches, severe pains and general weakness. My friends advised me to take Dr. Pierce's medicines and I have taken nine bottles of his 'Favorite Prescription' and four vials of 'Pellets.' I could notice a change after I had taken the first bottle and now am well and never see a sick day. I had eight doctors and they all said I would have to have an operation performed, but, thank God I did not, and Dr. Pierce's medicines have restored me to perfect health."

"I was run-down with nervous prostration and female weakness, and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Maranda Ramsey, of Smartt, Warren Co., Tenn. "Bowels constipated. My whole system was wrecked. My friends thought I would die. I had read of your medicines so I sent and got the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Pellets.' In one week's time I could begin to sit up. In two weeks I could sit up all day, after being so bad that I had to be helped in and out of bed. I have taken four bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and two of 'Favorite Prescription.' I took the medicine last winter and have been in better health than I have been for years."

"I wish to express my thanks to you for the good I have received from Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. E. Scovill, of Bolton, Stephenson Co., Ills. "I have used it at different times for the last eight years, but the greatest good received by it was last winter. I think it is the best medicine in the world for expectant mothers. I never tried it for that until with my last baby. I had seen what it had done for other women. I have been so very bad, almost helpless, could not get out of bed alone, or even turn over. Last December I commenced taking your 'Favorite Prescription,' and could get in and out of bed as well as at any time, and on March 20th I gave birth to an eleven pound boy without pain, and have since been as well and healthy as I ever was. I wish every mother could try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription at such times. I think it is a splendid medicine for female complaints. I feel that I can not praise Dr. Pierce and his medicine enough."
