NOTES.

- (a) A good continuation, which keeps the dull close game as open as possible. White has also the option of 4. B-KKt5 or P-K5, which both lead to very complicated play. (b) B-K2 is better. Compare Black's twelfth move. (c) We should prefer B-KKt5 first. (d) B x Kt would not be favourable for Black, as it would only serve to develop opponent's game. (e) Threatening B x Kt followed by B x P+. (f) If this be necessary Black should have played B-K2 at once on the fifth move. (g) Having obtained an attack, White keeps a vigorous pressure upon his opponent. (h) B x P+ would not improve White's game, as Black would afterwards regain the Pawn by Kt x P. (i) This move and the continuation form the basis of his future trouble. He ought to play 16. Kt-B1. - London Chess Players' Chronicle.

Chelsea, Vt., June 16th, 1891.

"My son had a severe sickness last winter, and after his partial recovery he was very weak, had no appetite and grew very poor, weighing only ninety-one pounds. At the suggestion of Wm. F. Hood he commenced the 16th of April to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and the result was wonderful. He regained his appetite and gained forty pounds in flesh, and now seems much better than at any time since his sickness." J. A. R. CORWIN.

3 PRACTICAL POINTS.

One of the most successful German physicians gave as the secret of his wonderful success these three important points:—

- 1. Keep the Head Cool. 2. Keep the Bowels Open. 3. Keep the Feet Warm.

These conditions are not so easily obtained as one would think. Why? Because without pure and healthy blood a vigorous circulation cannot be kept up, and because the food and occupation of most people tends to clog up the bowels and produce constipation. The success of B. B. B., like that of the German physician, lies in so purifying the blood and regulating the bowels, liver and stomach, that these three conditions are fulfilled easily, and disease can find no lodgment in the body.

THE BEST SPRING MEDICINE.

This medicine does purify the blood and cure all diseases arising from impure or unhealthy blood. It does regulate the entire system and cure constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, sick headache, serofula, skin diseases, rheumatism, and all disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. During the past ten years over one million bottles have been sold in Canada, and, although we guarantee every bottle to do all we claim, we have not received a single complaint.
