

The motion in Divisional Court was heard by HON. SIR GLENHOLME FALCONBRIDGE, C.J.K.B., HON. MR. JUSTICE BRITTON and HON. MR. JUSTICE SUTHERLAND.

Eric N. Armour, for Simpson.

H. E. Rose, K.C., for Parks

HON. SIR GLENHOLME FALCONBRIDGE, C.J.K.B.:—Having regard to all the circumstances, and the fact that there was no appeal by Simpson from the judgment in the County Court, we do not consider it a matter in which we should now interfere.

No costs of this application.
