

colleagues and I have said repeatedly since Caracas, should the conference fail or procrastinate, we shall reassess all options and decide how best we can cope with our most urgent problems in the light of prevailing circumstances.

---

S/C