

Customs tariff—322. Plate glass, n.o.p.: rate of duty, 17½ per cent.

Mr. DUNNING: A reduction in rate from 20 per cent to 17½ per cent. Our imports in 1936, not bevelled, $183,000 worth, of which $78,000 came from the United Kingdom and $69,000 from Belgium. Of bevelled plate glass we imported $1,687 worth, practically all from the United States.

Mr. BAKER: What is the Canadian production?

Mr. DUNNING: We exported $81,000 worth, some of which went to the United Kingdom. Our total production for 1934, the latest year for which we have records was $238,774. As my hon. friend doubtless knows, the statistics in regard to production are considerably behind those for imports and exports.

Customs tariff—326 and ex 326a. (i) Demi-johns or carboys, bottles, flasks, phials, jars and balls, of glass, not cut, n.o.p.; lamp chimneys of glass, n.o.p.; decanters and machine-made tumblers of glass, not cut or decorated, n.o.p.: rate of duty, 15 per cent.

(ii) Opal glassware, glass tableware, cut glassware and illuminating glassware, n.o.p.: rate of duty, 10 per cent.

Mr. DUNNING: No change in the first part. There is a reduction in the second part, opal glassware, et cetera, from 15 to 10 per cent. Our total imports of these goods were $884,000 in 1936, of which $558,000 came from the United States and only $68,000 from the United Kingdom.

Our exports were less than $100. Our Canadian production in 1934 was $185,000 worth. Including pressed and blown glass bottles in the production figures, there was a very large production, $7,500,000 worth in Canada.

Item agreed to.

Customs tariff—326a. Manufactures of glass, n.o.p.: rate of duty, 10 per cent.

Mr. DUNNING: The statistics I last gave apply to the second division of the previous item. I have not given the figures with regard to item 326a. The imports of glass lenses, n.o.p., totalled $202,000, of which $169,000 came from the United States and only $10,000 from Great Britain. Other manufactures of glass which are included in the same item total $482,000, of which $345,000 came from the United States and $41,000 from Great Britain. As I indicated a moment ago, the rates are reduced from 15 per cent to 10 per cent against Great Britain.

Item agreed to.

Customs tariff—326e. Articles of glass, not plate or sheet, designed to be cut or mounted; articles of glassware, when imported by manufacturers of silverware, to be used in receptacles made of, or electro-plated with, precious metals, in their own factories: rate of duty, free.

Mr. DUNNING: No change.

Item agreed to.

Customs tariff—326g. High thermal shock resisting glassware: rate of duty, free.

Mr. DUNNING: No change.

Item agreed to.

Customs tariff—339a. Lead capsules for bottles: rate of duty, free.

Mr. DUNNING: No change.

Item agreed to.

Customs tariff—340. Type for printing, including chases, quoins and slugs of all kinds: rate of duty, 7½ per cent.

Mr. DUNNING: No change.

Item agreed to.

Customs tariff—341. Babbit metal and type metal, in blocks, bars, plates and sheets: rate of duty, 10 per cent.

Mr. DUNNING: No change.

Item agreed to.

Customs tariff—ex 352, ex 427, ex 445k, ex 446a, ex 462. Fixed or stationary meters, of a size or capacity not made in Canada, for hydraulic engineering; gauges, indicators and recorders for water or other liquid levels, volume or flow, of a class or kind not made in Canada: rate of duty, free.

Mr. DUNNING: This is a reduction in rate. This is included in schedule IV of this agreement in order to afford free entry from the United Kingdom of meters, gauges, indicators and so on, described in detail in the item. In each instance they are of a size, capacity or class not made in Canada. Formerly they would have been dutiable at the rates shown opposite the items in the votes and proceedings, ranging from free to 20 per cent. Now they have a classification of their own.
