

Private Bills

following: 46, 52, 58, 59, 67, 68, 69, 70, 78, 88, 95, 97, 100, 102, 103, 109, 111, 113, 114, 115, 118, 121, 122, 123, 131, 133, 134, 135, 137, 139. I stop there to suggest that there is a typographical error on the order paper in the name in connection with Bill No. 139.

Mr. Sinnott: You must find them interesting.

Mr. Knowles: The next ones are: 140, 143, 151, 153, 154, 155, 156, 162. These bills total 38, and with the two that were passed previously make 40. I think that is enough divorces for the House of Commons to pass in one day.

Mr. Stuart (Charlotte): That's what you think.

Motion stands.
