Dear Dr. Douglas:

I should like to have you lunch at the bank with our Directors some day when you are free. Is there any date during, say, the next fortnight that would be convenient for you? The luncheon of course would be quite informal. We should all be very pleased if you could accept.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Lewis W. Douglas,

M o n t r e a l.

P.S.- A telephone reply from your Secretary to mine will be sufficient.
