OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Sir Arthur W. Currie, G.C.M.G., K.C.B.
McGill University,
Montreal.

Dear Sir Arthur:

I am in receipt of your circular letter of the 6th instant calling attention to the financial needs of the Montreal Symphony Orchestra.

This is the third appeal which I have received for the same object. I answered the first one with a subscription of $250. to the general funds of the Orchestra, and a subscription of four tickets for all of the concerts, and feel that with these subscriptions I have met my obligation in full for the current season.

Yours sincerely,
