

*From J. M. DRAKE, Esq., M.D., Demonstrator of Anatomy, McGill
College; and at present House Surgeon of the Montreal General Hospital.*

Dr. Bell having been one of the Apothecaries to this Hospital for the past three years, I have had ample opportunity of judging of his character and abilities, and it gives me great pleasure to be thus afforded an opportunity to express the high opinion I entertain for both.