

A.

ACCOUNTANT—Continued.

	RULE.	PAGE.
"journal" to shew sums paid daily into and out of court	143	19
"general ledger" to contain separate account for every action or matter	144	19
in suitors' accounts, entries to be made of payments into and out of court, and of orders dealing with the fund	145	19
bank interest to be credited to every account	146	19 compound interest not to be credited in respect of any fund not in court at least 5 years	147	20 balances under $10 standing for two years to be carried to suspense account	148	20
"stock journal" and "stock ledger" to contain entries of all transactions relating to Dominion stock held or purchased for suitors	149	20
"balance book" to contain quarterly balances on every account	150	20
"investments book" to contain particulars of securities other than Dominion stock	151	20
"bond index," to contain particulars of bonds, recognizances, &c.	152	20
"deposit index" to contain particulars of securities deposited for safe custody	153	20
"private ledger" to contain general interest account, Toronto General Trust Company's account, bank account, and account of official guardian ad litem	154	20 books (except private ledger) to be open to inspection by parties interested	155	20 to give certificate of state of any fund in court	155	20 securities and bonds, recognizances, &c., to be taken in name of accountant	156	20
list of securities to be prepared half yearly	162	21 account of payments into and out of court to be made every January, and verified	161	21
form of declaration in verification prescribed	161	21 account of salaries and office expenses to be made out every January	159	21
salaries and expenses to be paid by cheque	160	21
accounts to be audited every year	157	21
each auditor's remuneration to be $100 per annum	158	21
ACCOUNTANTS, court may obtain services of, as experts	207	27
ACCOUNTS, indorsement on writ of claim for account	217	33
may be taken at any stage	551	73
special directions may be given if accounts taken in chambers	547	73 order for accounts may be made forthwith unless preliminary question to be tried	745	98 notice of motion to be served after time for appearance	746	98
to be supported by affidavit	746	98
orders for administration to be obtained on motion	747	98 service of notice of motion for not carrying in accounts sufficient if served on solicitor	521	70
debtor and creditor accounts to be verified and brought into master's office and items numbered	63	11 master in ordinary to decide as to mode of taking, vouching and prosecuting	55	10 account books may (if directed) be accepted as prima facie evidence	61	11 appointment may be given to ascertain what items admitted	68	11 warrant may be issued to ascertain what items admitted	69	11
master may, under order of reference take accounts with rests, inquire into wilful neglect and default, set occupation rent, allow for repairs, &c., make just allowances and report specially	57	10

ACCOUNTS IN ADMINISTRATION ACTIONS. See also Administration Action.