

If you can read, you can both instruct yourself, and them that will hear you.

If you have children and servants, you can teach them how to fear, and to love, and to pray to God.

And if you are unlearned, you can think of what you have heard at Church, and resolve to do, to the best of your knowledge, as you have been taught.

Then will the Lord be with you, to bless you in the way you go; to preserve and to prosper you. For this is what he hath declared, them that honour me, I will honour: and they that despise me, shall be lightly esteemed. 1 Sam. ii. 30.

A PRAYER FOR SUNDAY MORNING.

O LORD, who hast consecrated this day to thy service, give us grace so to observe it, that it may be the beginning of a happy week to us; and that none of thy judgments may fall upon us for profaning it. Fix in our hearts this great truth, that here we have no abiding place, that we may seriously and timely provide for another life; and grant that this great concern may make us very desirous to learn our duty, and to do what thou requirest of us. And blessed be God, that we have churches to go to, that we have such times set apart for the more public worship of our Creator, and that we have pastors to teach us! The Lord prosper their labours, and give us grace to profit by them, that they and we may enjoy an everlasting sabbath with thy saints in heaven, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

A PLAIN AND USEFUL INSTRUCTION FOR SUNDAY EVENING.

Concerning the Providence of God, or his Wisdom and Goodness in governing the World.

THAT God is great, and to be greatly feared, we know by the world he hath made, and from his dreadful judgments.
