BRITISH CONSTITUTIONAL SOCIETY

(P)

Upper Canada.

AT a MEETING of a Number of the MEMBERS of the Original CONSTITUTIONAL SOCIETY of YORK, and other FRIENDS of BRITISH CONNEXION, in the CITY of TORONTO, held at Morrison's Tavern, on Tuesday the 1st day of July 1834:

GEORGE DUGGAN, Esq. was unanimously Called to the Chair,

WHEN IT WAS RESOLVED--

THAT ~~THE BRITISH CONSTITUTIONAL SOCIETY~~ BE FORTHWITH RE-ORGANIZED

THAT it shall be the object of this Society to sustain and cement, by all the means in its power, a PERPETUAL CONNEXION BETWEEN UPPER CANADA AND THE UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND—a Connexion to which this Province is almost exclusively indebted for its rapidly increased and increasing Wealth, Population, and Prosperity: and from which, alone, we can hope to continue in the enjoyment of these distinguished advantages.

THAT every Adult Male Inhabitant of this City, of respectable character, without distinction of political party, shall be eligible to be a Member of this Society, who will pledge himself to support this Connexion, and who will also pledge himself to oppose, by all lawful means, every attempt to weaken that Connexion, from whatever quarter it may emanate; and likewise to oppose, by all constitutional exertions, the election of all persons to places of trust or confidence, who will not support the same principles, and who will not expressly disavow all connexion with the persons or principles of those individuals who advocate the "Independence of this Province from"—(what has been termed)—"the *Bane*ful Domination of the Mother Country."

THAT this Society do invite their Fellow-Subjects, in every part of the Province, to unite with them in the same laudable object,—and to establish, in every Township, County, and District, similar Societies, to co-operate and correspond with them on all matters for the promotion of the great common object.

THAT the Officers of this Society do consist of One President: not less than Six, nor more than Ten Vice-Presidents:

Patriot Office—T. Dalton.
