BRISTOL ASSOCIATION DANCE.

A large crowd attended the annual oncert and dance of the Bristol and Districts Association of Toronto, which was held in the Sons of England Hall, chmond street, last night. W. P. wis, ventriloquist, and Jack Levison, comedian, evoked roars of laughter, while the patriotic side of the pro-gram was excellently rendered by Miss Rose Matthews and Mr. Nicholson, the lent of the association. The evencluded with a dance.

BRITISH OFFICERS KILLED.

Among the many pictures of re-productions of actual scenes in the war zone which appear in this week's Sunday World there are views of how the Germans make views of how the Germans make their prisoners work at road-making and as beasts of burden in taking the place of horses. There is a pathetic picture of a Belgian priest giving the last rites to a dying soldier. Views of English and Canadian Red Cross nurses who are taught to pitch a tent in addition to their duties of nursing. There is a view of the battle fought at Peronne, which is a grim illustration of the deadly nature of this war. The Sunday World is for sale by all newsdealers and newsboys at five cents a copy.
