An O.B.A. meeting is called for Saturday afternoon at Hamilton, and Manager Barber of the West Ends will represent them there. Brantford will also be represented, and possibly Argos. With all these teams in the senior series the O.B.A. will be a real "big league" this season.

The final game of playground basketball in the Senior "B" League brought together Osler and McCormick. The game was characterized by hard checking, and the McCormick boys had the best of it in the first half, leading by 21-44. Playing in this style they soon overcame McCormick's lead, the full time score being Osler 41, McCormick 34. This ties these teams for first place, and the play-off should be a game well worth seeing.

It is understood that Presi-dent Lannin of the Boston Americans. owner of the Providence franchise, favors a manager who can pley regularly, this being in line with the policy of retrench-ment, which every club in the Internament, which every club in the interna-tional League will put in force the com-ing season. If a playing manager is to be selected and the leader is to be chosen from the talent now on the roster, Shean is the logical choice, Dave To team will buck up against the fast West End five.
