OUTLOOK IN EUROPE SENT WHEAT DOWN

Reports of Tense Financial Situation in Germany Had Influence.

FROSTS IN CANADA? Small Upturn Early in Day Followed News From Northwest.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—The European war situation was the main influence today in sending wheat down.

Reports by way of Amsterdam and London that the financial situation in Germany was tightening and was giving cause for hopes in some quarters that this would tend to the bringing of peace.

Light frosts in the Canadian northwest had caused a small upturn earlier in the day, this market being influenced by the bulge there, but the impetus it gave was not great.
