

CLASSICS OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

This series will include the leading works on International Law, the republication of which has been undertaken principally on account of the difficulty of procuring the texts in convenient form for scientific study. The text of each author will be reproduced photographically, so as to lay the source before the reader without the mistakes which creep into a newly printed text. An Introduction will be prefixed to each work, giving the necessary biographical details concerning its author and stating the importance of the text and its place in International Law; tables of errata in the original will be added when necessary, and notes to clear up doubts and ambiguities or to correct mistakes in the text will be supplied. Each work will be accompanied by an English version made expressly for the series by a competent translator. James Brown Scott, Director of the Division of International Law, will supervise these publications as General Editor.
