

CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTELS.

While the perfect sleeping and dining car service of the Canadian Pacific Railway provides every comfort and luxury for travellers making the continuous overland through trip, it has been found necessary to provide places at the principal points of interest among the mountains where tourists and others might explore and enjoy the magnificent scenery.

The Company have erected at convenient points hotels, which, by their special excellence, add another to the many elements of superiority for which the Railway is famous.

THE CHATEAU FRONTENAC.

at Quebec, the quaintest and historically the most interesting city in America, is one of the finest hotels on the continent. It occupies a commanding position overlooking the St. Lawrence, its site being, perhaps, the grandest in the world. The Chateau Frontenac was erected in 1893, at a cost of nearly a million of dollars; and great taste marks the furnishing, fitting and decorating of this imposing structure, in which comfort and elegance are combined to an unequalled extent.

Rates, three dollars and fifty cents to five dollars per day, with special arrangements for large parties and those making prolonged visits. Address,

"MANAGER, Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, Canada."

For view of Chateau Frontenac, see page 8.

THE KAMINISTQUIA,

at Fort William, the western terminus of the Lake Route and of the Eastern Division of the C. P. R., is an excellent, well-appointed hotel in every respect, which offers many unique attractions as a vacation home for those in pursuit of rest and recreation in the picturesque region at the head of Lake Superior.

The hotel rates are from two dollars and fifty cents to three dollars and fifty cents per day, with special rates for large parties or those making an extended visit. Address,

"MANAGER, The Kaministiquia Hotel, Fort William, Ont."

BANFF HOT SPRINGS HOTEL,

at Banff, in the Canadian National Park, on the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains, is placed on a high mountain promontory 4,500 feet above the sea level, at the confluence of the Bow and Spray Rivers, and is a large and handsome structure, with every convenience that modern ingenuity can suggest, and costing over a quarter of a million of dollars. While it is not intended to be a sanatorium, in the usual sense, the needs and comforts of invalids are fully provided for. The Hot Sulphur Springs, with which the region abounds, vary in temperature from 80 to 121 degrees, and bathing facilities are provided by the hotel. The springs are much like those of Arkansas, and the apparently greater curative properties of the water are no doubt due to the cool, dry air of the mountains.

A number of sub-ranges of the Rocky Mountains radiate from Banff, and a dozen mountain monarchs within view raise their heads a mile or more above the hotel.

Game is plentiful, and Devil's Head Lake, not far away, a mile or two in width and fifteen miles long, affords excellent sport in deep trolling for trout.

The hotel rates are from three dollars and fifty cents to five dollars per day, according to the rooms. Special rates by the week or month will be given on application to

"MANAGER, Banff Springs Hotel,
Banff, Alberta, N. W. T., Canada."

THE LAKE LOUISE CHALET.

This quiet resting place in the mountains is situated on the margin of Lake Louise, about two miles distant from the station at Laggan, from which there is a good carriage drive, and is an excellent vantage point for tourists and explorers desiring to see the lakes and the adjacent scenery at their leisure.

Although comfortable beds and good plain meals are at the command of travellers, it is not exactly like the other chalet hotels, being rather intended as a resting place affording meals, etc., to the tourist parties visiting the Lakes in the Clouds. Apply to

"MANAGER, Banff Springs Hotel,
Banff, Alberta, N. W. T., Canada."

MOUNT STEPHEN HOUSE

is a pretty chalet-like hotel, fifty miles west of Banff, in Kicking Horse Cañon, at the base of Mount Stephen—the chief peak of the Rockies, towering 8,000 feet above. This is a favorite place for tourists, mountain climbers and artists, and sport is plentiful. Looking down the valley from the hotel, the Chertail Mountains are seen on the left, and the Van Home range on the right.

The rates are three dollars per day for accommodation.

Apply to

"MANAGER, Mount Stephen House, Field, B. C., Canada."

GLACIER HOUSE

is situated in the heart of the Selkirk, within twenty minutes' walk of the Great Glacier, which covers an area of about thirty-eight square miles.

The hotel, which has recently been enlarged to accommodate the ever-increasing travel, is in a beautiful amphitheatre surrounded by lofty mountains, of which Sir Donald, rising 8,000 feet above the railway, is the most prominent. The dense forests all about are filled with the music of restless brooks, which will irresistibly attract the trout fisherman, and the hunter for large game can have his choice of "big horns," mountain goats, grizzly and mountain bears. The main point of interest, however, is the Great Glacier. One may safely climb upon its wrinkled surface or penetrate its water-worn caves. It is about five hundred feet thick at its foot, and is said to exceed in area all the Glaciers of Switzerland combined.

No tourist should fail to stop here for a day at least. He will be loth to leave it at the end of a week.

The rates are three dollars per day. Address correspondence to

"MANAGER, Glacier House, Glacier, British Columbia."

THE FRASER CAÑON HOUSE,

at North Bend, 130 miles east of Vancouver, is situated on the Fraser River, and is managed with the same attention to the comfort of its patrons that pervades all branches of the Company's service. The scenery along the Fraser River is well described as "ferocious," and the hotel is a comfortable base from which to explore.

Rates three dollars per day. Address

"MANAGER, Fraser Cañon House, North Bend, British Columbia."

HOTEL VANCOUVER,

at Vancouver, B. C., is the Pacific coast terminus of the Railway. This magnificent hotel is designed to accommodate the large commercial business of the place, as well as the great number of tourists who always find it profitable and interesting to make here a stop of a day or two. It is situated near the centre of the city, and from it there is a glorious outlook in every direction. Its accommodations and service are perfect in every detail, and excel that of the best hotels in Eastern Canada or the United States.

Rates, three to four dollars and fifty cents per day, with special terms for a longer time. Address

"MANAGER, Hotel Vancouver, Vancouver, B. C."
