

If you see it in the London Free Press" it is so.

READ AND REFLECT.

NOTICE TO OUR PATRONS—If the individual members of an audience would stop to think for just an instant, they would undoubtedly appreciate the fact that the habit of rising from one's seat and leaving the theatre before the curtain falls, is a most annoying one, and one that should be stopped. We therefore beg our audiences to kindly remain in their seats until the close of the performance.

Evenings—doors open at 7:30; curtain rises at 8:15 sharp. Matinees—doors open at 1:30; curtain rises at 2:30 sharp.

The plan of the House will be kept at the confectionery parlors of Mr. Hewitt Fysh, King and Richmond Streets, corner of the Opera House building, where all seats may be reserved up till seven o'clock on the evening of performance.

Plan opens for each attraction two days in advance.

Seats can be secured by mail, telegraph or telephone. Telephone 732.

Physicians are requested to register at the Box Office, leaving seat number, as this will enable Ushers to find them if called for, without disturbing the audience.

Carrriages can be ordered at the Box Office or of the Chief Usher.

Please report to the management any inattention on the part of the employees.

Overcoats, packages and umbrellas checked for a small charge.

For all lost articles apply at Box Office.

HERRMANN

The Eminent Prestidigitateur, aided by Mme. Herrmann.
In his Marvelous Entertainment of
MAGIC, MYRTH & MYSTERY.

Special.—During the progress of the entertainment it will be necessary to borrow from the audience such small articles as watches, rings, hats, handkerchiefs, etc. The audience are requested, therefore, to comply with the request cheerfully, as the programme is so long it will not permit of tedious waits for the articles requested, and if they are not forthcoming it will be necessary to dispense with the number and go to the next one.

PART I.

Thirty minutes with Herrmann.

All Nature's laws set aside,
Laughter born of bewilderment and wonder.

Intermission one minute only. The audience is requested not to leave their seats.
